Edw Reardan

William Raſtall Sergeant at Law, to the gentle Reader.

HERE haue yee (Gentle Readers) a Collection of the Statutes of England, (from the beginning of MAGNA CHARTA, vnto this preſent time) which were before this yeere imprinted, and which be now in force and effect.

The printed Statutes, expired, or repealed, or concerning priuate perſons, or ſome priuate places, I haue (for the moſt part) left out of this worke: ſauing that of them I haue made in their apt titles (as I thinke) a briefe remembrance.

The reſidue of the Statutes imprinted, haue I put in this worke (as I ſuppoſe) in their apt titles, word for word, as they be in the great Statutes: onely leauing out, aſwell certaine ſuperfluous wordes, as alſo the moſt part of the preambles, for that I feared, that if I ſhould haue put in all the Preambles, this Booke would haue growen ſo bigge, and ſo thicke, that it would not haue beene contained in this volume. Neuertheleſſe I haue (I truſt) put in thoſe Preambles, without which the body of the Statutes cannot be well perceiued.

But yet truſt not, that all the Statutes that I haue put at large in this Booke, doe ſtand in force: For percaſe ſome of them bee repealed by other Statutes made after, by ſpeciall or generall wordes, which for lacke of leaſure I could not throughly conſider. I haue noted in the Margent of euery Statute certaine words, and that for three cauſes:

The firſt, for that, that many of the Statutes be long, and containe many ſeuerall matters, of which percaſe you would many times gladly, ſhortly finde out ſome one (without tediouſnes, ſpending of the time in reading ouer the whole Statute) therfore by peruſing the words in the Margent, ye may quickly conceiue, what matters be in that Statute, whereby you may readily finde out the matter that ye would read of in that Statute.

The ſecond cauſe is, that the words in the Margent well conſidered, ſhall ſtand you in as good ſteed, as ſhould a ſpeciall Calender.

TO THE READER.

The third cauſe is, becauſe that many Statutes containe diuers matters, that neceſſarilie were to be put in diuers ſeuerall Titles apt for thoſe ſeuerall matters, and ſo ſhould diuers matters aptly be put in this booke twiſe or thriſe, or percaſe in moe places in their diuers apt Titles, were it not that then this booke would haue beene to bigge, therefore the wordes in the Margent, doe ſhortly ſhew you thoſe ſeuerall matters apt for other titles.

Note that the wordes within the Parentheſes ( ) be not the wordes of the Statute, but my wordes planted in there, for the better vnderſtanding of the Statute.

And although I haue put the Statutes here at large, yet will I aduiſe euerie ſuch of you, as ſhall haue any matter of importance, concerning any Statute in this booke, not to truſt altogether to this booke: But read you ouer diligently the Act with the Preamble thereof, in the great bookes of Statutes, out of which I tooke this. This aduiſe I giue you for two cauſes: The one, for that, that reading the Preamble with the Statute, it ſhall many times giue you much light for the true vnderſtanding of the Statute: where if yee read the Statute in this booke without the Preamble, the vnderſtanding of the Statute may be to you oft time confuſed. The other cauſe is, for that, that perhaps diuers faults be eſcaped in this worke, ſome for lacke of diligence of the Printer, and ſome by my default, for lacke of laiſure to conſider, and aduiſedly to peruſe and ouerſee this worke after I had finiſhed it.

Note alſo that in the end of euery Referment of the two Tables, you ſhall finde the one of theſe foure letters, A. B. C. D. which doe ſignifie, the firſt, ſecond, third, and fourth Columne of euerie leafe.

VALE.

2 Becauſe that ſome people be in doubt whether the children borne in the parts beyond the Sea out of the liegeance of England, ſhould be able to demaunde any inheritance within the ſame liegeance or not, whereof a petition was put into the Parliament late holden at Weſtminſter, the xvii. yere of the raigne of our Soueraigne Lord the king that now is, and was not at the ſame time wholy aſſented vnto: Our Soueraigne Lord the King, willing that all doubts and ambiguities ſhould be taken away, and to declare, and put the law in certaine in this caſe, hath charged the Prelates, Earles, Barons, and other wiſe men of his Counſell aſſembled in this parliamēt, to deliberate vpon this point: who of one aſſent haue ſaid, that the law of the Crowne of England is, and alwaies hath been ſuch, that the children of the Kinges of England (in whatſoeuer partes they ſhall be borne in England or els where) be able and ought to carrie the inheritāce after the death of their aunceſtors: Which law our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, the ſaid Prelates, Earles, Barons, & other great men, & all the commons aſſembled in this parliament, doe approue and affirme for euer. And as concerning other children borne out of the liegeance of England, in the time of our Soueraigne Lord the king, they be alſo of one mind accorded, that Henry ſon of Iohn de Beaumond, Elizabeth daughter of Guy de Brian, and Giles ſonne of Rauſe Dawbeney, and others which the king will name, which were borne beyond the Sea, out of the liegeance of England, ſhalbe from henceforth able to haue and inioy their inheritāce after the death of their anceſters, in all partes within the ſame liegeance of England, as well as thoſe that bee borne within the ſame liegeance of England. And if it be alleaged againſt any ſuch borne beyonde the Sea, that he is a baſtarde, in caſe where the Biſhop ought to haue coniſance of baſtardie, it ſhall be ſent to the Biſhop of the place where the land demanded is, to certifie the kings Court where the plee therof hangeth, as of old times hath bin vſed in the caſe of Baſtardie, alleaged againſt them which were borne in England, 25. 2 Concerning ſeruants, Bailifes, chamberlaines, and all manner of Receiuors, the which are accomptable: It is agreed and ordayned, that when the Maſters of ſuch ſeruants do aſſigne them Auditors to take their accompts, and they be found in arrerages vpon their accompt (all things allowed which ought to bee allowed) their bodies ſhall be arreſted, and by the Teſtimonie of the Auditors of the ſame accompt, they ſhall be ſent vnto the next Gaole of the King in thoſe partes, and ſhall be receiued of the Shirife or Gaolor, and impriſoned in iron, and vnder ſafe cuſtody, and there ſhal remaine at their owne coſt, vntill they haue ſatiſfied their Maſter fully of the arrerages. Neuertheleſſe if any perſon being ſo committed to priſon, do complaine, that the Auditors of his accompt haue greeued him vniuſty, charging him with receipts that hee hath not receiued, or not allowing him expences and deliueries reaſonable, and doe finde friendes that will take him to mainpriſe to bring him before the Barons of the Eſchequer, hee ſhall be deliuered vnto them. And the Shirife (in whoſe priſon he is kept) ſhall giue knowledge vnto his Maſter, that he be before the Barons of the Eſchequer at a certaine day with the Rolles and Tales, by which hee made his accompt, and in the preſence of the Barons, or ſuch Auditors, as they ſhall aſſigne, the accompt ſhall bee rehearſed, and Iuſtice ſhall be done to the parties, ſo that if hee bee founde in arrerages, hee ſhall bee committed to the Fleete, as aboue is ſaid. And if hee flie and will not make accompt willinglie, as it is contained in other Statutes (before 1.) he ſhall bee diſtrained to come before the Iuſtices to make his accompt, if hee haue whereof to be diſtrained: and when he commeth to the Court, Auditors ſhall be aſſigned to take his accompt, before whom if he be found in arrerages, and cannot pay the arrerages foorthwith, hee ſhall be committed to the Gaole, to bee kept in forme aforeſaid. And if he flie, and it be teſtified by the Shirife that he is not founde, he ſhall be called from Countie to Countie, vntill he bee Outlawed: and ſuch a priſoner ſhal not be repleuiſable. And let the Shirif or Gaoler take heede, be it within a Fraunchiſe or without, that he do not ſuffer him to go at large by the common writ called Replegiare, or otherwiſe

And if hee doe, and thereof be conuict, he ſhall anſwere to the Maſter the damages done to him by ſuch his ſeruant as ſhall make proofe of it by the Countrey, and the Maſter ſhall haue his recouerie thereof by a writ of Debt. And if the Gaoler haue not wherewith, he may bee iuſticed, or wherewithall to pay the ſame his ſuperiour that committed the cuſtodie of the gaole vnto him, ſhal anſwere the damages by the ſame writ. BEcauſe many great men of England (which haue infeoffed Knights and their freeholders of ſmall tenements in their great manors) haue complayned that they cannot make their profite of the reſidue of their manors, as of their waſts, woods, and paſtures, whereas neuertheleſſe the ſame feoffees may haue ſufficient paſture there as much as appertaineth to their hold. Thus it is prouided & granted, that whenſoeuer ſuch feoffees doe bring an Aſſiſe of Nouel diſſeiſin for their common of paſture: And it is recogniſed before the Iuſticers, that they haue aſmuch paſture as ſufficeth for their hold, and that they haue free egreſſe and regreſſe from their hold vnto the paſture, then let them bee contented therewith, and they on whom they haue complained ſhal go quite, for that they haue made their profit of their landes, waſt, woods, and paſtures. And if they alleage that they haue not ſufficient paſture, or not ſufficient egreſſe and regreſſe as appertayneth to their hold, then let the truth bee inquired by aſſiſe. And if it be found by aſſiſe, that the ſame deforceors haue diſturbed them of their egreſſe or regreſſe in any thing, or that they haue not ſufficient paſture (as is aforeſaid) then ſhall they recouer their ſeiſin by the view of the Enqueſt, ſo that by their diſcretion and othe, the plaintifes ſhall haue ſufficient paſture, & ſufficient egreſſe and regreſſe, in forme aforeſaid. And the diſſeiſors ſhal bee amerced, & ſhal yeeld damages as they were wont before this prouiſion. And if it be found by the aſſiſe, that the plaintifes haue ſufficient paſture with free and ſufficient egreſſe and regreſſe, as before is ſaide, let the other make their commodity of the reſidue, & go quite of the Aſſiſe, Merton cap.4.An.20.H.3.

2 As in a Statute made at Merton (before 1.) it was graunted that Lords of waſt woods and paſtures might improue the ſaid waſt woods & paſtures, notwithſtanding the contradiction of the tenants, ſo yͤ the tenants had ſufficient paſture to their hold, with free egreſſe & regreſſe to the ſame. And foraſmuch as no mention was made betweene neighbor & neighbor, many Lords of waſt woods and paſtures haue bin let heretofore by the contradiction of the neighbors hauing ſufficient paſture. And for becauſe forrein tenants haue no more right to cōmon in the waſt woods or paſtures of any Lord, then the Lordes owne tenants: It is ordeined, that the Statute of Merton, prouided betweene the Lord & his tenants, from henceforth ſhall hold place betweene Lords of waſt woods & paſtures, and neighbors: Sauing ſufficient paſture to their tenants and neighbors, ſo that the Lords of ſuch waſt woods and paſtures may make improuements of the reſidue. And this ſhall bee obſerued for ſuch as claime paſture as pertaining to their hold: But if any doe clayme common of paſture by ſpeciall feoffement or graunt, for a certaine number of beaſtes, or otherwiſe then he ought to haue of common right, ſeeing that couenants may abridge the law, he ſhall haue ſuch recouerie as he ought to haue by forme of the graunt made vnto him, by occaſion of a Windmill, berkarie, dairie, inlarging of a neceſſary court or courtilage, frō henceforth no man ſhalbe grieued by Aſſiſe of Nouel diſſeiſin of common of paſture. And granteth that for Eſtouers of wood, and profit to bee taken in woods by gathering of Nuts, Acornes, and other fruits, for a Corodie, and deliuerie of corne and other victuals and neceſſaries, and money to bee receiued yearely in a place certaine for toll, tronage, paſſage, pontage, pawnage, and ſuch like to be taken in places certaine, for keeping of woods, parkes, foreſtes, chaſes, warrens, yates, & other Bailiwikes, and offices in fee, from henceforth an Aſſiſe of Nouel diſſeiſin ſhall lie, and in all caſes afore rehearſed, the writ ſhall bee as it was wont to be, De libero tenemento. And as before times it hath lyen and holden place for common of paſture, ſo ſhal it from henceforth hold place for common of turueland, fiſhing, and ſuch like commons, which any man hath appendant to his freehold, or without freehold by ſpeciall deede, at the leaſt for terme of life. In caſe alſo when any holding for terme of yeares, or in ward, alieneth the ſame in fee, and by ſuch alienation the freehold is transferred to the feoffee, the remedie ſhalbe by a writ of Nouel diſſeiſin, and aſwell the feoffor as the feoffee ſhalbe held for diſſeiſors, ſo that during the life of any of them, the ſaid writ ſhall hold place. And if by the death of the parties remedie happen to faile by that writ, then remedie ſhall bee had by a writ of Entre. And though ſome haue doubted whether remedie may bee had by this writ, in caſe where one feedeth the ſeuerall ground of another, let it bee held for certain, that a good and a ſure remedie is giuen in that caſe by the ſaid writ. And let them that be named diſſeiſors, beware from henceforth, that they alleage no falſe exceptions, whereby the taking of the Aſſiſe may bee deferred, ſaying that another time an Aſſiſe of the ſame land paſſed betweene the ſame parties, or ſaying vntruely that a writ of more high nature hangeth betweene the ſame parties for the ſame land, and vpon theſe & like matters do vouch Rolles or records to warrantie, to the ende that by the ſame vouching they may take away the veſture of the land, and receiue the rents and profits to the great damage of the plaintife. And whereas before none other paine was to bee had againſt him that falſely had alleadged ſuch vntrue exceptions, but onely that after ſuch falſe ſurmiſes diſproued, the Aſſiſes ſhould be taken. Our ſoueraign Lord the king (to whom ſuch falſe exceptions be odious) hath ordained, that if any being named diſſeiſor doe perſonally alleadge that exception, if at the day to him giuen he faile of the warrant that hee hath vouched, he ſhall be adiudged for a diſſeiſor without taking of the Aſſiſe, and ſhall reſtore the damages before enquired of, or to bee enquired of after, to the double, and ſhall neuertheleſſe haue a yeares impriſonment for his falſhood. And if the exception be alleadged by a Bailife, the taking of the Aſſiſe ſhall not bee delayed therfore, nor the iudgement vpon the reſtitution of the lands and damages. Prouided neuertheleſſe, that if the maſter of ſuch a Bailife that was abſent, come afterward before the ſame Iuſticers that tooke the Aſſiſe, and offer to proue by the Record or Rol, that at another time an Aſſiſe paſſed betweene the ſame parties for ẏ ſame land, or ẏ the plaintif at an other time, did withdraw his ſuite in a like writ, or that there is a plee hanging by a writ of more high nature: a writ ſhalbe made for him for the ſame Record, and when he ſhal haue the ſame, and the Iuſticers do perceiue that the Record ſo ſent, would haue bin ſo auailable to him before iudgement, that the plaintife by force of the ſame ſhould haue bin barred of his action, the Iuſticers ſhal award immediately a Scire facias againſt him that firſt recouered, that be before them at a certaine day, at the which day the defendant ſhal recouer againe his ſeiſin and his damages (if hee haue payed any by the firſt iudgement) with the damages alſo that he hath ſuſtained after the firſt iudgement giuen, which he ſhal recouer to the double, as before is ſaid, and hee that firſt recouered ſhall bee puniſhed by impriſonment, after the diſcretion of the Iuſtices. In the ſame maner if the defendant againſt whom the Aſſiſe paſſed in his abſence, ſhew any deeds or releaſes, vpon the making whereof the Iurie were not examined, nor could be examined, becauſe there was no mētion made of them in pleading, and probably they might bee ignorant of the making of thoſe writings: The Iuſtices vpon the ſight of thoſe writings, ſhall award a Scire facias to the partie that recouered, that he appeare before them at a certaine day, and ſhall cauſe the Iurors of the ſame Aſſiſes to come before them. 9 For aſmuch as it chanceth many times in Aſſiſes of Nouel diſſeiſin, that the tenant doth pleade againſt the plaintife, that he holdeth the landes being in demaunde ioyntly with his wife, not named in the writ, & ſometime with a ſtraunger, who likewiſe is not named in the writ, and ſheweth forth a deede teſtifying the ſame, & demandeth iudgement of the writ: It is agreed and ordained, that if the plaintife will offer to auerre by Aſſiſe, that the day of his writ purchaſed, he that alleaged the exception was ſole tenant, ſo that neither his wife nor any other had any thing in the ſaide landes, then the Iuſtices before whom the Aſſiſe is arraigned ſhal retaine the ſame deede ſafely in their keeping, vntill the Aſſiſe be tried betweene them therupon. And they ſhall by our writ vnder their Teſte let the party abſent, whom the deed teſtifyeth to haue beene ioyntly enfeoffed with the tenant that is preſent to vnderſtand, that he bee preſent at a certaine day with the other tenant, for to anſwere vnto the party plaintife, aſwel vpon the exception alleadged, as of the lands demanded and put in view, if it ſhal ſo ſeeme expedient to him: At which day if both they that are named tenantes do come in, and doe iuſtifie the ſame feoffement, they ſhal anſwer and maintain the exception alleadged by one of them, and further ſhall aunſwere vnto the Aſſiſe, as though the original had beene purchaſed againſt both of them ioyntly. And if it bee proued by Aſſiſe, that the exception was alleadged maliciouſly for to delay the plaintife of his right, ſo that they held not the ſame land ioyntly, the day of the writ purchaſed, then albeit the ſame aſſiſe doe paſſe for the tenants, and againſt the plaintife, yet they that alleadge the exception ſhall bee puniſhed by one yeares impriſonment, from whence they ſhall not bee deliuered without a grieuous ranſome. And let the Iuſtices bee well aduiſed, that from henceforth they doe not allow ſuch an exception alleadged by the bailifes of any ſuch tenants. And if hee that alleadgeth the exception abſent himſelfe at his day, and the other that is named ioyntenant doe appeare, although he diſauow the ſame deede & ſay, that he hath nothing in the foreſaid lands &c. neuertheles the aſſiſe ſhall be awarded againſt him that is abſent by the default. And if it bee found by the aſſiſe that they were not ioyntly ſeiſed the day of the writ purchaſed, and likewiſe that the tenant againſt whom the writ was purchaſed, or any other named in the writ did diſſeiſe the plaintife, then hauing regard to the exception that was falſely and maliciouſly alleadged to the hurt of the partie, and to the diſſeiſin that was made, the plaintife ſhall recouer his ſeiſin and double damages, and they that alleadged the falſe exception, ſhal haue the puniſhment aforeſaid: But if neither of the tenants doe come in at the day, then vpon their default the Aſſiſe ſhal be awarded againſt them. And if it bee found that the ſame exception was lawfully & truely alleadged, and that they that alleadged it, were iointly ſeiſed before the plaintif purchaſed his writ againſt them, the aſſiſe ſhal paſſe no further, but the writ ſhalbe abated. The ſame ſhall bee obſerued if both or one doe appeare, if it be found by aſſiſe that the exception was truely alleadged, as before is ſaide. The ſame order ſhalbe obſerued in aſſiſes of Mortdanceſter, and writs of Iuris vtrum, if on the firſt day that the parties appeare in Court, the tenant alleadge the ſaid exception againſt the demandant, ſhewing a deed thereupon, and the demandant will offer to auerre by the aſſiſe or Iurie, that the day of his writ purchaſed, hee that alleadged, the exception was ſole tenant, then theſame maner of proces ſhal bee vſed in the aſſiſes of Mortdanceſter, and writs of Iuris vtrum, as before

But in other writs whereby landes are demanded, ſuch proces ſhalbe made at the firſt day that the parties appeare in Court, if the tenant doe alleage the foreſaid exception of a ioynt feoffement, & the demandant will offer to auerre by the Countrey, that the day of the writ purchaſed, hee that alleadged the exception was ſole tenant, then the ſame maner of proces ſhall bee obſerued betwixt the parties, vntill a Iurie haue paſſed betweene them thereupon. And if it be founden by the Iurie that the ſame exception was truely alleaged, then the writ of the demandant ſhall abate. And if it be founden by the Iurie that the ſame exception was falſely & maliciouſly alleadged, to the hinderance of the partie, thē the demandant ſhall recouer his ſeiſin of the lands in demand, & the tenant ſhalbe puniſhed by the pain aboueſaid in a writ of Nouel diſſeiſin, as to the impriſonment, & as to the damages according to the diſcretion of the Iuſtices, An.34.E.1.Sta.de Con.Feoff.

And thoſe Jurors doubting to be attainted, would rather looſe their iſſues thē appeare in court, by meanes whereof the plaintifs were greatly delayed, and falſe othes ſeldome times puniſhed: It is therefore ordained and eſtabliſhed, that if the firſt Jurors which ſhall be liuing appeare not in Court before the Juſtices which ſhall be aſſigned ſuch Juries to take, at the firſt graund diſtres vpon them returned, or that returne thē be made, that they haue nothing whereby they may be diſtrained, that then by their abſence, there be no delay made of the Jurie, obſeruing in all other things the proces in ſuch Juries herretofore vſed, Weſt.4.St.de Attinct.13.E.2.

10 Our Soueraigne Lord the king, by the grieuous complaint of his commons, conſidering the great miſchiefes had within the Realme, and yet not remedied, and alſo the great damage and diſinheritance that commeth by the vſuall Periurie of Iurors, impanelled in enqueſts, as well in the Courts of our Soueraigne Lord the king, as of other, the which periurie aboundeth and increaſeth daily more then it was wont, by reaſon of the great gifts that ſuch Iurors take of the parties to the plees ſued in the ſaid Courts, inſomuch that the greater part of the people that haue to ſue in the ſaid Courts, leaue their ſuits for the miſchiefe aforeſaid, eſpecially for cauſe of the delayes that be in the writs of Attaint, for that in times paſt in writs of attaint when the graund Iurie had appeared in Court, & were ready to paſſe, one of the tenants or defendants, or of the pettie Iurors named in ſuch writs, ſometime haue pleaded falſe and faint plees, which were not triable by the graund Iurie of the attaint, and by that cauſe delayed the taking of ſuch graund Iuries, till ſuch plees were tried: And afore ſuch plees tried and found for the plaintife, another of the Iurors, tenants or defendants might plead an other ſuch falſe & faint plee, after the laſt continuāce in the ſame attaints, & ſo euery of the defendants, Iurors or tenants after other might pleade ſuch falſe and faint plee, and delay the graund Iury when it was readie to paſſe. Aud though that all ſuch falſe and faint plees were found againſt them which pleaded them, no paine was giuen to them by the common law: For cauſe of which delayes the graund Iuries in Attaints haue bin grieuouſly vexed and trauailed, and the plaintifes in ſuch attaints put to ſo great coſts, and thereby impoueriſhed, that they could not ſue forth their ſaid ſuits, wherfore the Iurors be the more incouraged to be periured and make their falſe othes in ſuch caſes. Our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the king, willing vpon that to prouide remedie, at the requeſt of the ſaid Commons, and by the aſſent of the Lordes aboueſaid, hath ordained & ſtabliſhed, that the parties plaintifes in all ſuch attaints, ſhall recouer their damages & coſts againſt all ſuch tenants, Iurors, and defendants, which they ſhall ſuſtaine in that behalfe, Anno 11.H.6.cap.4. And if any of the ſaid petie Iury appeare, thē the party complainant in that behalfe ſhall aſſigne the falſe ſerement of the firſt verdict vntruely giuen, whereunto they of the pettie Iurie ſhall haue no aunſwere, if they be the ſame perſons, and the Writ, Proceſſe, Returne, and Aſſignement good and lawfull, except that the demaundant or plaintife in the ſame attaint hath before bin nonſuit, or diſcontinued his ſuit of attaint taken for the ſame, or hath for the ſame verdict in a Writ of Attaint had iudgement againſt the ſaid pettie Iurie, but onely that they made true ſerement, which iſſue ſhall be tried by xxiiii. of the graund Iurie, and the party ſhall plead, that they gaue true verdict, or any other matter, which ſhall be a ſufficient barre of the ſaid attaint. And that plee notwithſtanding, the graund Iurie to be taken without delay, to enquire, whether the firſt Iurie gaue true verdict or no. And if they find that the ſame pettie Iurie gaue an vntrue verdict, then euery of the ſaid pettie Iurie to forfait xx. li. whereof the one halfe ſhall be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other halfe to the party that ſueth. And ouer that, that euerie of the ſaid pettie Iurie ſhall ſeuerally make fine and ranſome, by the diſcretion of the Iuſtices, before whō the ſaid falſe ſerement ſhall be found, after their ſeuerall offences, defaults, and ſufficiencie of euerie of the ſaid pettie Iurie. And after that, that thoſe of the ſaid pettie Iurie ſo attainted, ſhall neuer after be in any credence, nor their oath accepted in any Court. And if ſuch plees as the partie pleadeth (which is a barre of the ſaid attaint) be found or deemed againſt him that ſo pleadeth, then the partie that ſo ſueth ſhall haue iudgement to be reſtored to that hee loſt, with his reaſonable coſts and damages. Foreſeene alway, that any Vtlarie in action or cauſe perſonall, or Excommengement pleaded or alleaged in the partie plaintife or demandant, ſhall be taken but as void plee, and to that hee ſhall not be put to anſwere. And that in all the foreſaid proceſſe, ſuch day ſhall be giuen as in a Writ of Dower, and none eſſoine or protection to lye nor to be allowed in the ſame. And if the ſaid graund Iurie appeareth not vpon the firſt diſtreſſe had againſt them, ſo that the Iurie for their default doe remaine, hee that maketh default ſhall forfait to the king twenty ſhillings, and vpon the ſecond diſtreſſe xl. ſhillings, & after making default, for euerie ſuch default fiue pound. And like penalty and forfaitures to be againſt them, and euerie of them that ſhall be named in the Tales, as is afore expreſſed, againſt euery of the ſaid graund Iurie aforeſaid. And that for and by the death of the partie, or any of the ſaid pettie Iurie, the ſaid attaint ſhall not abate, nor be deferred againſt the remnant, as long as two of the ſaid pettie Iurie be aliue. And if hereafter any falſe verdict be giuen in anie action, ſuit, or demaund, afore any Iuſtice or Iudge of recorde, of any thing perſonall, as debt, treſpaſſe, and other like, which ſhall be vnder the value of xl. li. that then the partie grieued ſhall haue attaint, with ſuch proceſſe and plees, as is afore rehearſed, and delaies to be taken away, as is afore remembred: Except that in this caſe of attaint, euery perſon of the graund Iurie that may diſpend fiue Markes by the yeare of freehold out of auncient demeſne, or is worth an C. Markes of goods and cattels, ſhall be able to paſſe in the ſame attaint. And if the pettie Iurie be attainted, that then they ſhall in this caſe of attaint, euery of them forfait fiue pound, whereof one halfe ſhall be to the king, and the other halfe to the partie after the forme afore rehearſed. And ouer that to make fine and ranſome by the diſcretion of the Iuſtices, as is aforeſaid. And if there be not perſons of ſuch ſufficiencie within the ſhire or place where any of the ſaid attaints ſhall be taken as may paſſe in the ſame: Be it ordained by the authoritie aboueſaid, that then one Tales ſhall be awarded into the ſhire next adioyning, by the diſcretion of the Iuſtices afore whom the ſame attaints ſhall be taken, which ſhall be warned to appeare vpon like paines, as is aforeſaid, and enabled to paſſe in the ſaid attaints, as if there were dwelling in the ſhire where the ſame attaint ſhalbe taken. And that the ſame laws, actions, and remedie ordained by this preſent act be kept, for and to al them that ſhalbe grieued by ſuch vntrue verdicts, of any inheritance in diſcent, reuerſiō, remainder, or if any freehold in reuerſion or remainder. And if the partie in attaint giuen by this act, be nonſuit, or the ſame diſcontinued: that then the ſame party ſo nonſuit, or ſo diſcontinuing the ſaid attaint, make fine and raunſome by the diſcretion of the Iuſtices, afore whome the ſaid attaint ſhall be taken and depending. Aduantages

Aduowſon.

WHereas for Aduowſons of Churches, there be but three original writs, that is to ſay, one writ for the Right, and two for the poſſeſſion, which be the Darrein preſentment, and the Quare impedit, and hitherto it hath bin vſed in the Realme, that when any hauing no right to preſent, had preſented to any Church, whoſe Clerke was admitted, he that was the verie Patron could not recouer his aduowſon, but onely by a writ of Right, which ſhould be tried by Battaile, or by the great Aſſiſe, wherby heires within age, either by fraud, or els by the neclige͂ce of their wardeins, and heires both of full age and within age, either by necligence, or els by fraud of tenants by the curteſie, tenants in dower, or otherwiſe, for terme of life, or for yeares, or in fee taile, were many times diſherited of their Aduowſons, or at the leaſt (which was their beſt helpe) were driuen to their writ of Right, and in caſe were hitherto altogether diſherited: It is prouided, that ſuch preſentments ſhall not be ſo preiudiciall to the right heires, or to them vnto whom ſuch Aduowſons ought to reuert after the death of ſuch perſons, as is aforeſaid: But that as often as any hauing no right doth preſent during the time that ſuch heires are in warde, or during the eſtates of tenants in dower, by the curteſie, or otherwiſe, for terme of life, or of yeares, or in taile, at the next auoydance after that the heire ſhall be come to full age, or that after the death of the tenants before named, the Aduowſon ſhal reuert vnto the heire being of full age, he ſhall haue the ſame action and exception by a poſſeſſory writ of Aduowſon, which the laſt aunceſtour that heire being of full age ſhould haue had at the laſt auoydance hapning in his time before his death, or before the demiſe was made for terme of life, or in fee taile, as before is ſaid. The ſame ſhall be obſerued in preſentments made vnto Churches being of the inheritance of weomen, what time they ſhall be vnder the power of their huſbands, who ſhall be aided by this eſtatute, by the remedie aforeſaid. Alſo Religious men, Archbyſhops, Biſhops, Archdeacons, Parſons of Churches, and other eccleſiaſticall men, ſhall be aided by this eſtatute, in caſe any hauing no right to preſent, do preſent vnto the Churches belonging to their houſes, prelacies, dignities, or parſonages, what time ſuch houſes, prelacies, ſpirituall dignities, or parſonages be vacant. Yet ſhall not this act be ſo largely vnderſtanden, that ſuch perſons for whoſe remedie this ſtatute is ordained, ſhall haue the recouerie aforeſaid, ſaying that the Gardeins of the heires, the tenants by the curteſie, tenants in dower, for terme of life, or for yeares, or the huſbands did faintly defend the plees moued by them, or againſt them; becauſe that the iudgements giuen in the kings Courts, ſhall not be adnulled by this Statute, but the iudgement ſhall ſtand in his force, vntill it be reuerſed in the Court of the king as erronious, if error be found therein, or the Aſſiſe of Darrein preſentment, or the enqueſt in the Quare impedit, (if any hath paſſed) be adnulled by Attaint, or by certification, which ſhall be freely graunted. And from henceforth one fourme of pleading ſhall be obſerued amongſt the Iuſticers in writs of Darreine preſentment, and Quare impedit, as to this, that if the defendant alleage plenartie in the Church of his owne preſentation, the plee ſhall not ſtay by reaſon of that plenartie, ſo as the writ be purchaſed within ſixe Monethes, though he cannot recouer his preſentation within ſixe Monethes. And ſometimes where a fine is leuied betweene many claiming one Aduowſon, and is inrolled before the Iuſticers in the roll or fine, in this forme, that one of them ſhall preſent the firſt time, and at the next auoidance an other, and the third time an other, and ſo of more, in caſe there be more. And when one hath had his preſentment, according to the forme of their ſaid agreement and fine, and at the next auoydance, he to whom the ſecond preſentation belongeth, is diſturbed by any that was partie to the ſaid fine, or in his ſteede: It is prouided, that from henceforth he that is ſo diſturbed, ſhal haue no need to ſue a Quare impedit, but ſhall reſort to the roll or fine. And if the ſaid concord or agreement be found in the roll or fine, then the Shirif ſhal be co͂manded, that he giue knowledge vnto the diſturbor, that he be ready at ſome ſhort day, containing yͤ ſpace of xv. daies or iii. weekes (as the place hapneth to be neer or far) for to ſhew if he can alleage any thing wherefore the partie that is diſturbed ought

And if he come not, or peraduenture doth come, and can nothing alleage to barre the partie of his preſentation, by reaſon of any deede made ſince the fine was leuied, or inrolled, he ſhall recouer his preſentation wich his dammages. And where it chaunceth that after the death of the aunceſtor that preſented his Clerk vnto a Church, the ſame aduowſon is aſſigned in dower to any woman, or to tenant by the curteſie, which do preſent, and after the death of ſuch tenants, the true heire is diſturbed to preſent when the Church is void. It is prouided, that from henceforth it ſhal be in the election of the partie diſturbed, whether he will ſue by a writ of Quare impedit, or of Darrein preſentment. The ſame ſhall be obſerued in Aduowſons dimiſed for terme of life, or yeres, or in fee taile. 3 Whereas in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the 2. & 3. yeres of the raigne of the late king Philip and Queene Marie, one Act was made & ordained for the amending and maintayning of High waies, which ſaid act hauing no longer continuance but for ſeauen yeres after the end of the ſame parliament, was afterwards by one other Act of parliament made in the fifth yeare of the Queenes Maieſties raigne that now is, reuiued to haue further continuance for a certaine time yet induring, in which ſaid Act made in the ſaid fifth yere, and one other Act made in the xviij. yere of her Maieſtyes raigne, there were contained diuers further addicions and ordinances, tending to the amendement and maintenance of the ſaid high waies. And whereas the Sea bankes and Sea workes in ſundry partes of the Sea coaſtes within the Countie of Norfolke (not being wythin the particuler charge of any perſon or perſons, or of any Towneſhip, or to be maintained by any other common charge) are by the working of the Sea ruined and decayed, to the great hurt and preiudice of many Townſhips, within three miles of the ſaid Bankes and Sea workes, and likelie daily more and more to grow in ruine and decaie, if conuenient remedie be not prouided in that behalfe. And whereas the high wayes within three miles of the ſaid Sea bankes and Sea workes be ſo grauely and ſandy, as neither need nor require for the amendement of the ſame, ſo many of the ſaid day workes, as be limitted & appointed by the ſaid ſtatutes, the ſurpluſage of which ſaid day workes, if it might be yerely imployed towardes the repairing, amending, and maintenance of ſuch of the ſaid Sea bankes and Sea workes, as are not, or ought not to be made and maintained at the particuler charge of any perſon or perſons, or at the charge of any Towneſhip, or by acreſhot, or other common charge, would be a ſinguler benefite and helpe to the aforeſaid Townſhips, within three miles of the ſaid Sea bankes and Sea workes, ſo yerely to be made and maintained. For remedie whereof be it enacted and ordayned by aucthoritie of this preſent Parliament, that from and after the feaſt of Pentecoſt now next inſuing, the Iuſtices of peace within the ſaid Countie of Norfolke, ſhall and may yerely at any generall Seſſions to be holden within the ſaid Countie, for and towards the making and amending of any the ſaid Sea bankes, or Sea workes, (now being, or that hereafter ſhall be in ruine or decay) limit and appoint ſo many of the aforeſaid day workes, as by their diſcretions ſhall be thought ſuperfluous and not needfull to be imployed towards the amendement of the aforeſaid high wayes, within three miles of the ſaid ſea bankes, or ſea workes, which ſhall needfully require any ſuch reparation or amendement. And be it further enacted, that euery perſon and perſons, dwelling within three Miles of the ſaid Sea bankes & Sea workes needfully to be amended, as is aforeſaid, ſhall yerely vpon reaſonable warning gyuen, during ſo many dayes as ſhall be limitted and appointed in the ſaid Seſſions, in reſpect of his and their labor and carriages, ſtand and be in that degree charged and chargeable towards the making, repairing, and amending of the ſaid Sea bankes, or Sea workes, as by the aforeſaid Statutes they ſtand charged and chargeable for the amendement of any high wayes. And that they, and euery of them for the not doing and performing the ſame, ſhall incurre the like paine, penalty, and forfaiture, as is contayned in the aforeſaid Statutes, made for the amendement of high waies, and euery of them. And that the ſaid Iuſtices like wiſe in their aforeſaid generall Seſſions, ſhall and may nominate and appoint the high Conſtables of euery hundred that ſhal be charged or chargeable by force of this Act, towards the making or amending of the ſaid Sea bankes, or Sea workes, to be Surueyors of the ſaid ſea workes, and ſea bankes. And that they and euery of them ſhal take vpon them the execution of the ſaid charge & office, and duelie performe the ſame, vpon ſuch like paine and forfaiture, as by the ſaid Statutes, or any of them to be impoſed vpon any Surueior, or Surueiors, for not taking vpon him or them the office of Surueior for the amendement of the high waies. All the ſaid penalties and forfaitures to be leuied in maner & forme, as in the ſaid Statutes are limitted or appointed. This act to indure & continue for the ſpace of fiue yeres, and from thenceforth vnto the end of the Parliament next inſuing the ſaid fiue yeres, An. 27. Eliz. cap. 24. An. 35. Eliz. cap. 7. And to cauſe their ſaid lands, tenements, fees, annuities, offices, goods, cattels, wares, marchandizes, and debts, to be ſearched, viewed, rented, and appraiſed, and to make ſale of the ſaid lands, tenements, fees, annuities, & offices, aſmuch as the ſame offendor may then lawfully giue, graunt, or depart with, or otherwiſe to order the ſame for true ſatiſfaction and payment of the ſaid creditors a porcion, rate, and rate like, according to the quantitie of their debtes. And that euery direction, order, bargaine, ſale, and other things done by the ſaid Lords aucthorized, as is aforeſaid, in writing ſigned with their handes, by aucthoritie of this Act, ſhall be good and effectuall in the law, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, againſt the ſaid offendors, their heires and executors for euer, as though the ſame order, direction, bargaine, and ſale had been made by the ſaid offendor or offendors, at his, or their owne free will and libertie, by writing indented, inrolled in any the kings Courts of Record. And be it &c. that if after any ſuch act or offence committed, and complaint therof made to the ſaid Lords, as is aforeſaid, any partie greeued concerning the premiſſes, knowing, ſuppoſing, or ſuſpecting any of the goodes, cattels, wares, marchandizes, or debts of ſuch offendor or offendors to be in cuſtodie, vſe, occupying, keeping, or poſſeſſion of any perſon or perſons, or any perſon or perſons to be indebted to any ſuch offendor or offendors, do make relation thereof to the ſaid Lords, to whom aucthoritie is giuen by this preſent act, as is aforeſaid: that then the ſaid Lords ſhall by vertue hereof, haue full power and aucthoritie to ſend for, and conuent afore them, by ſuch proces, waies, or meanes, as they ſhall thinke conuenient by their diſcretions, all and euery ſuch perſon and perſons, ſo knowen, ſuppoſed, or ſuſpected to haue any ſuch goods, cattels, wares, marchandizes, or debts, in his or their cuſtodie, vſe, occupation, keeping, or poſſeſſion, or ſuppoſed, or ſuſpected to be indebted to ſuch offendor or offendors, and vpon their apparance to examine them, and euery of them, aſwell by their othes, as otherwiſe, by ſuch waies and meanes, as the ſaid Lords by their diſcretions ſhall thinke meete and conuenient, for and vpon the ſpecialtie, certeintie, true declaration and knowledge of all and ſinguler ſuch goodes, cattels, wares, marchandizes, and debts of any ſuch offendors as be ſuppoſed or ſuſpected to be in his or their cuſtodie, vſe, occupation, or poſſeſſion, and of all ſuch debts as by them, or any of them ſhall be ſuppoſed

And it may pleaſe the Queenes moſt excellent Maieſtie, that it be on her highneſſe part ſtraightly charged and commaunded, that all the Statutes now remayning in force for repreſſing of vnlawfull games, and for the maintenance and vſe of Archerie, ſhall be duely put in execution for euer, vnder the paines in the ſaid Statutes conteined, Anno 13. Be it likewiſe enacted by like authority, that the ſayd Bridge ſhall bee wholy builded and finiſhed within the ſpace of two yeares next after the end, diſſolution, or prorogation of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, vpon payne of forfayture of the ſumme of one hundred pounde for euery yeare after the ſaide two yeares, that the ſaide worke or Bridge ſhall happen to bee behind, vnfiniſhed and vnperformed, whereof the County ſhal loſe and pay lxxx. pound, and the Corporation or Towne of Cardife twenty pound. The moitie whereof ſhall be to the Queenes Maieſtie, her heirs and ſucceſſors, the other moitie to him that wil ſue for the ſame in any the Queenes Maieſties Courts of Record, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, wherein no eſſoine, protection, or wager of law ſhalbe admitted or allowed. And that all other Boroughes, Corporotions and liberties within the ſaid Countie of Glamorgan, (the Towne of Cardife and liberties of the ſame onely excepted) ſhall be contributors, and beare the ratable and reaſonable portions towards the ſame ioyntly and together with the country, or whole County of Glamorgan. Be it therefore declared, explaned, ordained and enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that from time to time hereafter, as oft as the rents or other profits of the landes proper & belonging to the ſaid bridge, ſhal not be ſufficient to beare the charge of reparations of the ſaid bridge, the ſaid two Wardens & xii. That if any ſouldier hereafter, ſeruing the king in his warres, in any his dominions, or on the ſeas, or beyond the ſeas, or in Scotland, after the firſt day of Aprill next comming, do ſell, giue away, or wilfully purloine, or otherwiſe exchaunge, alter or put away any horſe, gelding or Mare, or any harneis, wherewith hee ſhall be ſet forth that then euery ſuch Souldier ſo offending vpon due proofe or teſtimonie, to bee taken before the Lieutenant, high Admiral, the kings deputie, viceadmirall, warden, or captaine, and in their abſence before any of their deputies: ſhall be impriſoned by the ſame lieutenant or any other before named, there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe, vntill hee haue ſatiſfied to the partie, owner of the horſe, gelding, mare or harneis, ſo by him ſold, purloined, exchanged, wilfully loſt, altered or otherwiſe made away. And if ſuch ſouldier ſo offending, fortune to eſcape from the Lieutenants, and other the foreſaid perſons, without the puniſhment, & reſtitution aforeſaid, that then the ſame ſouldier, vpon complaint made by the partie grieued, or his executors or adminiſtrators, vpon due proofe thereof to be made to any Iuſtice or Iuſtices of peace, in the partes where ſuch Souldier ſo offending ſhall be found, ſhal be by ſuch Iuſtice or Iuſtices, committed to ward, there to remain without baile or mainpriſe, vntill he haue ſatiſfied the partie grieued, his executors or adminiſtrators, of and for ſuch horſes, geldings or mares and harneis, ſo by any ſuch ſouldier wilfully loſt, exchanged, altered or otherwiſe purloined. Prouided alwaies, that if the ſaid ſouldier, bring any ſufficient warrant or teſtimonie, before the ſaid Iuſtice, from the ſaid lieutenant, or any of the perſons abouenamed in writing, vnder the ſeale of anie of them, teſtifying that the ſame horſe, or harneis, were loſt in the kings ſeruice, againſt the

Aud be it alſo enacted, by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if any captaine being appointed to haue the order of any number of ſouldiers, vnder any other higher officer, doe for any cauſe, licence any ſouldier in his retinue, to depart frō the field or fortreſſe, where they ſhall be appointed to ſerue, without the eſpeciall aſſent and licence in writing of the Lieutenant, or the others before named, hee ſhall forfeit and looſe for euery ſuch ſouldier ſo by him licenced to depart twenty pound to bee leuied, as is aforeſaid to the vſe of the king. Prouided alwaies and be it &c. that it ſhall be lawfull to all and euerie of the ſaid Lieutenants, and other the ſaid perſons, to retaine in his or their own hands, to their own vſe, of the wages of his or their ſouldiers, the ſummes following, that is to ſay, vi.s. viii.d. for the liuerie or coate of euerie yeoman ſouldier, and xiii. s. iiii. d. for the liuerie or coate of euery gentleman ſouldier. Note that by a clauſe in the ſtatute 4. & 5.P. & M. cap.2. which ſee before in Armour 4. there is a further remedie giuen for their horſe & armour, vnto ſuch as ſet forth ſouldiers. And by the ſtatute 4.& 5. P. & M.cap.3. which ſee in Muſters 1.

The article here of felonie is reuiued, & all the reſt of the ſtatute confirmed, with an addition, & ſome alteration of the cauſe of taking reward of tenant or friend. And alſo an other penaltie ſet vpon Commiſſioners and Captaines, that ſhall take rewards to diſcharge men.

7 An.35.Eliz.cap.4. an act made for prouiſion for reliefe of Souldiers & Mariners, which was to endure no longer then to the end of the then next Parliament, which was An. 39. And then cap.21. there was an Act made for the explanation & continuance thereof, vnto the end of the next parliament, which was An. 43. Then c.3. the ſame former ſtatutes were continued till Eaſter then next, & from thenceforth diſcontinued, and thereby further enacted as followeth.

8 Be it enacted &c. that from & after the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter next, euery pariſh within this realme of England, and Wales, ſhall be charged to pay weekly, ſuch a ſumme of money, towards the reliefe of ſicke, hurt, & maimed ſouldiers & mariners, that ſo haue beene as afore is ſaid, or ſhall loſe their limmes, or diſable their bodies, hauing bin preſt, & in pay for her Maieſties ſeruice, as by the Juſtices of peace, or the more part of them, in their generall quarter Seſſions, to be holden in their ſeuerall Counties, next after the feaſt of Eaſter next, and ſo from time to time at the like quarter Seſſions, to be holden next after the feaſt of Eaſter, yearely ſhalbe appointed, ſo as no pariſh be rated aboue the ſumme of x. d. nor vnder the ſumme of ii. d. weekely to bee payed, & ſo as the totall ſumme of ſuch taxation of the pariſhes, in any county where there ſhall be aboue fifty pariſhes, doe not exceede the rate of vi. d. for euery pariſh in the ſame county, which ſummes ſo taxed, ſhalbe yerely aſſeſſed by the agreements of the pariſhioners within themſelues, or in default thereof, by the Churchwardens & the petty Conſtables of the ſame pariſh, or the more part of them, or in default of their agreement, by the order of ſuch Juſtices, or Juſtice of peace, as ſhall dwel in ẏ ſame pariſh, or if none be there dwelling, in the parts next adioyning. And if any perſon ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay anie ſuch portion of money ſo taxed, it ſhalbe lawful for the ſaid churchwardens & pety conſtables, & euery of thẽ, or in their defaults, for the ſaid Juſtices of peace, or Juſtice, to leuy ſuch ſumme by diſtreſſe, and ſale of the goods or chattels of the partie ſo refuſing or neglecting, rendring to the party the ouerplus raiſed vpon ſuch ſale. And for the collecting and cuſtodie of the ſummes taxed, in forme aforeſaid. Be it enacted, that the Churchwardens, and pettie Conſtables of euery pariſh, ſhall truely collect euery ſuch ſumme, & the ſame ſhall pay ouer vnto the high Conſtable, in whoſe diuiſion ſuch pariſh ſhall bee ſituate, tenne dayes before the quarter Seſſions, to be holden next before, or about the feaſt of the Natiuitie of Saint Iohn Baptiſt next, in the Countie where the ſaid Pariſh ſhall be ſituate, and ſo from time to time, quarterly within tenne dayes before euerie quarter Seſſions. And that euerie ſuch high Conſtable, at euery ſuch quarter Seſſions in ſuch County, ſhall pay ouer the ſame, to two ſuch Iuſtices of Peace, or to one of them, or two ſuch other perſons, or one of them, as ſhall bee by the more part of the Iuſtices of Peace of the ſame Countie elected, to bee Treaſurers of the ſaid Collection. The ſame other perſons, to be elected Treaſures, to bee ſuch, as at the laſt taxation of the Subſidie next before the ſame election, ſhall be valued and ſeſſed at tenne pounds in lands yearelie, or at fifteene pounds in goods: which Treaſurers in euery Countie ſo choſen, ſhall continue but for the ſpace of one whole yeare, and then giue vp their charge, with a due account of their receits and diſburſements, at their meeting in Eaſter quarter ſeſſions, or within tenne dayes after, to ſuch others, as ſhall from yeare to yeare in the forme aforeſaid, ſucceſſiuely be elected. And if any Churchwarden, pettie Conſtable, or high Conſtable, or his executors, or adminiſtrators ſhall faile to make payment in forme aboue ſpecified, Then euery Churchwarden, and pettie Conſtable, his executors, or adminiſtrators ſo offending, ſhall forfeit the ſumme of twentie ſhillings. And euery high Conſtable, his executors, or adminiſtrators, the ſumme of forty ſhillings, to bee leuied by the Treaſurers aforeſaid, by diſtreſſe and ſale in maner before expreſſed, and to be taken by the ſaid Treaſurers in augmentation of their ſtocke, to the vſes aforeſaid. And if any Treaſurer, his executors or adminiſtrators, ſhall faile to giue vp his account within the time aforeſaid, or ſhall be otherwiſe negligent in the execution of his charge, then it ſhall bee lawfull for the more part of the Iuſtices of Peace, of the ſame county in their Seſſions, to aſſeſſe ſuch fine vpon ſuch Treaſurer, his executors, or adminiſtrators, as in their diſcretion ſhall ſeeme conuenient, ſo it be not vnder ẏ ſumme of fiue pounds. And for the true and iuſt diſtribution and imployment of the ſummes ſo receiued, according to the true meaning of this act. Bee it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euery Souldier or Mariner, hauing had his or their limmes loſt, or diſabled in their bodies by ſeruice, being in her Maieſties pay, as aboue is mentioned, or ſuch as ſhall hereafter returne into this realme, hurt or maimed, or grieuouſly ſicke, ſhall repaire, if he be able to trauell, & make his complaint to the Treaſurers of the county out of which he was preſſed, or if he were no preſt man, to the Treaſurers of the County where he was borne or laſt inhabited, by the ſpace of three yeares, at his election. And if hee be not able to trauell, to the Treaſurers of the Countie where he ſhall land, or ariue, and ſhall bring a Certificat vnto any of the Treaſurers aforeſaid, vnder the hand and ſeale of the Generall of the Campe, or Gouernour of the Towne wherein he ſerued. And of the captaine of the Band, vnder whom he ſerued, or his Lieutenant, or in the abſence of the ſaid Generall or Gouernour, from the Marſhall or Deputie of the Gouernour, or from any Admirall of her Maieſties fleet, or in his abſence from any other Generall of her Maieſties Ships at the ſeas, or in abſence of ſuch Generall, from the Captaine of the ſhip wherein the ſaid Mariners or ſouldiers did ſerue the Queenes Maieſtie, containing the perticulars of his hurts and ſeruices, which certificat ſhall be alſo allowed by the generall muſter Maſter, for the time being, reſident here within this realme, or Receiuer generall of the muſter rols. The Treaſurer & Controller of her Maieſties nauie, vnder his hand, for the auoiding of all fraud & counterfeiting: Then vpon ſuch certificat, ſuch Treaſurers as are before expreſſed, ſhal according to the nature of his hurt, & commendation of his ſeruice, aſſign vnto him ſuch a portion of reliefe, as in their diſcretions ſhal ſeeme conuenient for his preſent neceſſity, vntil the next quarter Seſſions, at the which it ſhall be lawfull for the more part of the Iuſtices of Peace vnder their handes, to make an Inſtrument of graunt of the ſame, or like reliefe, to endure, as long as this Acte ſhall ſtand or indure in force, if the ſame ſouldier or Mariner ſhall ſo long liue, & the ſame penſion not be duly reuoked or altered, which ſhalbe a ſufficient warrant to all Treaſurers for the ſame county, to make payment of ſuch penſion vnto ſuch perſons quarterly, except the ſame ſhall be afterward by the ſaid Iuſtices reuoked or altered. So that ſuch reliefe as ſhalbe aſſigned by ſuch Treaſurers or Iuſtices of Peace to any ſuch Souldier or Mariner, hauing not born office in the ſaid wars, exceede not the ſumme in groſſe nor yearely penſion of ten pounds. Nor to any that hath borne office vnder the degree of a Lieutenãt, the ſumme of fifteene poundes. Nor to any that hath ſerued in the office of Lieutenant, the ſumme of twenty pounds. And yet neuertheles, it ſhall and may be lawfull to and for the Iuſtices of peace and others, hauing authoritie by this Acte, to aſſigne penſions to Souldiers & Mariners, vpon any iuſt cauſe, to reuoke, diminiſh or alter the ſame from time to time, according to their diſcretions in the generall quarter ſeſſions of the peace, or generall aſſemblies for cities or townes corporate, where the ſame penſion ſhall bee graunted. And whereas it muſt needes fall out, that many of ſuch hurt and maimed ſouldiers and mariners, doe ariue in ports, and places farre remote from the Counties, whence they are by vertue of this Acte, to receiue their yearely annuities, and penſions, as alſo they are preſcribed, by this Act, to obtaine the allowance of their certificates, from the muſter Maſter, or receiuer general of the muſter rolles, who commonly is like to abide about the Court or London, ſo as they ſhall need at the firſt, prouiſion for the bearing of their charges, to ſuch places. Bee it therefore enacted, that it may bee lawfull for the Treaſurers of the countie where they ſhall ariue, in their diſcretion vpon their certificate (though not allowed) to giue them any conuenient reliefe for their iourney, to carrie thẽ to the next Countie, with a teſtimoniall of their allowance, to paſſe on towardes ſuch a place. And in like maner ſhall it be lawfull for the Treaſurer of the next Countie to doe the like. And ſo from Countie to Countie (in the direct way) till they come to the place where they are directed to finde their maintenance, according to the tenor of this Statute. And for the better execution of this act in all the braunches thereof. Be it enacted that euery the Treaſurers, in their ſeuerall Counties, ſhall keepe a true booke of computation, of all ſuch ſummes as they leuie, and alſo a regiſter of the names of euery ſuch perſon vnto whom they ſhall haue diſburſed any reliefe. And ſhall alſo preſerue, or enter euery certificate, by warrant whereof, ſuch reliefe hath bin by thẽ diſburſed. And alſo that the muſter Maſter, or receiuer general of the muſter rolles, ſhall keepe a booke wherein ſhall be entred, the names of all ſuch, whoſe certificates ſhalbe by him allowed, with an abſtract of their certificates. And that euerie Treaſurer returning, or not accepting yͤ certificat brought vnto him frõ the ſaid muſter maſter, ſhal write & ſubſcribe the cauſe of his not accepting, or not allowing thereof, vnder the ſaid certificat, or on the back thereof. And be it further enacted, that if any Treaſurer ſhall wilfully refuſe to diſtribute & giue anie reliefe, according to the forme of this Acte. That it ſhall bee lawfull for the Iuſtices of peace, in their quarter Seſſions, to fine ſuch Treaſurers, by their diſcretiõs, as aforeſaid. The ſame fine to be leuied by diſtreſſe & ſale thereof, to be proſecuted by any two of them, whom they ſhall authorize. And be it alſo enacted, that euery ſoldier or mariner that ſhall bee taken begging, in any place, within this realme, after the feaſt of Eaſter next, or anie that ſhal counterfeit any certificat in this act expreſſed, ſhall for euer looſe his annuity or penſion, & ſhalbe taken, deemed, & adiudged, as a common rogue, or vacabond perſon, and ſhal haue, & ſuſtaine the ſame, & the like pains, impriſonment and puniſhment, as is appointed & prouided for common rogues & vacabõd perſons. Prouided alwaies and be it enacted, that all the ſurpluſage of money which ſhall be remayning in the ſtocke of any Countie, ſhall by the diſcretion of the more part of the Iuſtices of peace, in their quarter ſeſſions be ordred, diſtributed & beſtowed, vpõ ſuch good & charitable vſes, and in ſuch forme as are limitted & appointed in the ſtatutes made and now in force, concerning reliefe of the poore, and puniſhment of rogues & beggers. Prouided alwaies that the Iuſtices of peace, within any countie of this realme or wales, ſhall not intromit or enter into any city, borough, place or towne corporate, where is any Iuſtice of peace for any ſuch city, borough, place or towne corporate, for the execution ot anie article of this act: But that it ſhalbe lawfull to the Iuſtice & Iuſtices of peace, maiors, bailifes, & other head officers of thoſe cities, boroughs, places and townes corporate, where there is anie Iuſtice of Peace, to proceede to the execution of this Acte, within the precinct and compaſſe of their liberties, in ſuch manner as the Iuſtices of Peace in anie Countie may doe, by vertue of this Acte. And that euerie Iuſtice of Peace within euerie ſuch Cittie, Borough, place or towne corporate, for euerie offence by him committed, contrarie to the meaning of this Statute, ſhall bee fineable, as other Iuſtices of Peace at large in the Counties are in this Acte appointed to bee. And that the Maior and Iuſtices of Peace in euerie ſuch Citie, Borough, Place and Towne corporate, ſhall haue authoritie by this preſent Acte to appoint any perſon, for the receiuing of the ſaid money, and paying the ſame, within ſuch Citie, Borough, place or towne corporate, which perſon ſo appointed, ſhall haue authoritie to doe all ſuch thinges, and be ſubiect to all ſuch penalties, as high Conſtables, by vertue of this Act ſhould haue or be. And be it enacted, that all forfaitures to be forfaited by any Treaſorer, Collector, Conſtable, Churchwarden, or other perſon, for any cauſe mentioned in this Act, ſhall bee imploied to the reliefe of ſuch Souldiers and Mariners, as are by this Act appointed to take and haue reliefe. And after that releife ſatiſfied, then the ouerplus thereof, with the ouerplus of the ſtocke, remaining in any of the ſaid Treaſorers hands, ſhall be imployed as is before mentioned, to the charitable vſes, expreſſed in the ſaid ſtatutes, concerning the reliefe of poore, & for puniſhment of Rogues and Beggers, (except the ſaid Iuſtices, or the more part of them, ſhall thinke meete to reſerue and keepe the ſame in ſtocke for the maintenance and reliefe of ſuch Souldiers & Mariners, as out of the ſame Countie may afterward be appointed, to receiue reliefe & penſions.) And yͤ the relief appointed to be giuen by this Act, ſhall be giuen to Souldiers and Mariners, out of the Countie or place where they were preſſed, ſo farre foorth as the taxation limitted by this Act, will extend. And if the whole taxation there, ſhalbe before imployed, according to the meaning of this act, or that they ſhall not be preſt men, then out of the place where they were borne or laſt inhabited, by the ſpace of three yeares, at his or their election. Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted, that euery penſion aſſigned heretofore to any Souldier or Mariner, or that ſhal be aſſigned before the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter next, notwithſtanding the diſcontinuance of the ſaid two former Actes, ſhall ſtand in force, and ſhall yerely from and after the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter next, bee ſatiſfied & payed, out of ſuch taxations and forfeitures, as ſhall bee made, collected, & leuied by force of this act, ſo long as the ſaid penſion ſhall remaine in force, without ſuch reuocatiō, or diminiſhing, as is before in this Act mentioned. Which clauſe of reuocation or diminiſhing before mentioned, ſhall extend as well to penſions heretofore aſſigned, as to ſuch as at any time hereafter, before, or after the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter, ſhalbe aſſigned, to any perſon or perſons. And bee it alſo enacted, that all arrerages of taxations heretofore made, by vertue of the ſaid former Statutes, or any of them, which ſhall be, or remaine, at the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter next, vncollected, and not receiued, or leuied, ſhall and may by authoritie of this Act, bee had, receiued, and leuied, by ſuch perſons, and in ſuch maner and forme, as in euery reſpect, taxations made by vertue of this act, are appointed to be collected, receiued and leuied, and ſhall be imployed to the vſes expreſſed in this Act, & no otherwiſe. Prouided alwaies and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if the ſaid rate ſhall be thought not to be ſufficient, for the reliefe of ſuch Souldiers, and Mariners, as ſhalbe to be relieued within the Citie of London: That then it ſhall be lawfull for the Maior, Recorder, and Aldermen of London, or the more part of them, to rate and taxe, ſuch reaſonable taxe, ſumme, & ſummes of money, for the ſaid reliefe, as ſhall be to them thought fit and conuenient: So as ſuch ſumme and ſummes of money, ſo to be rated, doe not exceed three ſhillings weekly out of any Pariſh. And ſo as in the totall, the ſumme ſhall not exceed, or be vnder xii.d. weekely out of euery Pariſh, one with an other, within the ſaid Citie and the liberties thereof. Michael the Archangell, and at the Seſſions next after Eaſter yearely for euer, during ſo many daies at euery of the ſaid times as need ſhall require, in like manner and forme as is now vſed and executed in the countie Palantine of Lancaſter. And that no actions, ſuit or proces, now, or hereafter to be depending in the ſaid counties, ſhalbe therby diſcontinued, hurt, or impaired, nor any aduantage therein to be taken by error, diſcontinuance of proces, ne otherwiſe, but that the ſame to proceed after the ſame new order. And that from henceforth the ſaid old order, rule & cuſtome in holding of the ſaid Countie or Shire dayes, ſhall vtterly ceaſe and determine for euer: any act, ſtatute, preſcription, graunt, vſage, cuſtome, priuiledge, law, libertie, conſtitution, or confirmation heretofore had, made, acuſtomed, or vſed, to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. Prouided alſo, that Sadlers and Girdlers, may ſell their neckes and ſhreds of tanned leather redde, without incurring any paine or forfaiture for the ſame. And for aſmuch as barke is now become ſcant by the vnſeaſonable felling of Oke out of the barking time, and thereby the Tanners be deſtitute of ſuch barke as is neceſſary. Be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons ſhall from and after the feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangel next, fel or cauſe to be felled any Oken trees meet to be barked, where the barke is worth ii. s. a cart loade, ouer and aboue the charge of barking and pilling (timber to bee imployed or beſtowed in or about building or reparation of houſes, ſhips, or milles, or any of them onely except) but betwixt the firſt day of April, and the laſt day of June, vpon payne of forfaiture of euery ſuch Oken tree ſo felled, or double the value thereof. And for the better preſeruation of Timber, which by the takers of timber is ſpoiled through the greedy deſire of gaine of the loppes, tops, or barke of timber trees. And that it ſhall bee lawfull to the partie of whom ſuch tree or trees ſhall bee taken, or to any other, for & in his name, to retaine, withhold, take and keepe to himſelfe, all the barke, loppe and toppe of ſuch tree or trees: any Commiſſion or other matter whatſoeuer notwithſtanding. And foraſmuch as no leather can be ſo well tanned but it may bee marred in the currying: Be it therefore enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that from and after the feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell next, no perſon or perſons ſhall currie any kinde of leather in the houſe of any Shoomaker, or other perſon, but onely in his owne houſe, ſcituate in a corporate or Market Towne, nor ſhall currie any kind of leather, except it bee well and perfectly tanned, nor ſhall after the feaſt of Pentecoſt next, curry any hide or ſkin being not thoroughly drie after his wet ſeaſon, in which wett ſeaſon hee ſhall not vſe any ſtale vrine, or any other deceiptfull or ſubtill mixture, thing, way, or meanes, to corrupt or hurt the ſame, nor ſhall currie any leather meete for vtter ſole leather, with any other ſtuffe then with hard Tallow, nor with any leſſe of that, then the leather will receiue, nor ſhall curry any kind of leather meete for ouer leather and inner ſoles, but with good & ſufficient ſtuffe, being freſh & not ſalt, & throughly licoured till it can receiue no more, nor ſhal burne nor ſcalde any hyde or leather in the currying, nor ſhall ſhaue any leather too thin, nor ſhall gaſh or hurt any leather in the ſhauing, or by any other meanes, but ſhall worke the ſame ſufficiently in all points & reſpects, vpon payne of forfaiture for euerie ſuch offence or actes done contrary to the true meaning of this Article (other then in gaſhing, or hurting in ſhauing) vi. s. viii. d. & the value of euery ſuch ſkinne or hide marred by his euill workmanſhip: and for euery offence to bee done againſt this Article, in gaſhing or hurting by ſhauing, double ſo much to the party grieued

And be it &c. that no Cordwainer, Shoomaker, or other perſon or perſons, dwelling or inhabiting within the Citie of London, or the libertie of the ſame, nor any perſon or perſons that now is, or hereafter ſhall bee free of the citie of London, dwelling within three miles of the ſaid citie, and occupying wett curried Leather in his arte and occupation, ſhall put, or cauſe to be put any leather to be curried, but to ſuch perſon or perſons as bee or ſhall be free of the companie of the Curriers of the citie of London, vpon paine of forfaiture of all ſuch curried leather, or the value thereof. And bee it further enacted, that no perſon or perſons, ſhall by any meanes occupie or put in any made wares within the Citie of London, or three miles of the ſame Citie, any curried leather before the ſame ſhall be ſearched, and allowed by the Wardens of the Curriers of London for the time being, or ſuch perſons as they ſhall thereto aſſigne, and be ſealed with a Seale therefore to bee prepared, vpon paine that euery Shoomaker or other Artificer cutter of leather, offending againſt this Article, ſhall forfait for euery hide or ſkinne, otherwiſe curried or imployed, as is aforeſaid, ſixe ſhillings eight pence, and the value of euery ſuch hide or ſkinne. And bee it further &c. that no perſon occupying the feate or miſterie of a Currier, ſhall vſe or exerciſe the feate or miſterie of a Tanner, Cordwainer, Shoomaker, Butcher, or other Artificer vſing cutting of leather, during the time that hee ſhall ſo vſe or occupie the miſterie of a currier, vpon paine of forfaiture of ſixe ſhillings eight pence, for euery hide or ſkinne that hee ſhall currie during the time that he ſhall occupie or vſe any of the miſteries aforeſaid, contrarie to the meaning of this Article. And further be it enacted, that no Currier or Curryers vſing the arte of currying of leather, ſhall after the feaſt of Penticoſt next, refuſe to currie any leather to him or them for that purpoſe brought by any ſuch artificer as is or ſhall be a cutter of leather, the ſame artificer or his ſeruant bringing with him or them good and ſufficient ſtuffe, as is before mentioned, for the perfect licouring of the ſame leather, and that the ſaid leather in the preſence of the ſaid artificers cutters of leather, his ſeruant or ſeruants (if hee or they will be preſent) ſhall be licoured and curried in all things & degrees perfectly, & if he or they will not be preſent, it ſhall neuertheles be likewiſe licoured & curryed in his or their abſence perfectly, with as conuenient ſpeed as may be, not exceeding v. dayes in the ſummer, & x. dayes in the winter, after he ſhal or may take it in hand, vpon paine to forfait to the partie grieued for euerie hide & peece of leather not in this manner curried, & well and ſpeedily dreſſed x. s. And be it &c. by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the wardens of the Curriers for the time being, or ſuch perſons as they ſhall aſſigne or appoint, ſhall from time to time ſearch and trie all ſuch curried leather as ſhall bee brought to any of their companie to be curried, and ſhall with a ſeale therefore to bee prepared with conuenient ſpeed not exceeding one day after the currying and requeſt made, ſeale ſuch leather as they ſhall finde ſufficiently curried, taking for euery hide ſo ſealed after the rate of a penie for the diker, & for euerie ſixe dozen of calues ſkinnes one penie, and not aboue, to be payed by the Currier, vpon paine of forfaiture for euery hide which ſhall not bee ſearched and ſealed as is aforeſaid ſix ſhillings eight pence. And foraſmuch as leather well tanned and curried may by the negligence, deceit or euill workemanſhip of the Cordwainer or Shoomaker be vſed deceitfully, to the hurt of the occupier or wearer of it: Bee it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, which after the ſaid feaſt of Penticoſt, ſhall occupie the miſterie or occupation of Cordwainer or ſhoomaker, ſhall make or cauſe to bee made any bootes, buſkins, ſhooes, ſtartups, ſlipers or pantofles, or any part of them of Engliſh leather wette curried (other then Deereſkins, Calueſkins, or Goteſkins, made or dreſſed, or to be made or dreſſed like vnto Spaniſh leather) but of leather well and truely tanned and curried, in maner and forme aboue ſpecified, or of leather well and truely tanned onely, and well and ſubſtantially ſewed with good thred, wel twiſted & made, and ſufficiently waxt with waxe wel raſoned, & the ſtitches hard drawen with hand leathers, as hath bin accuſtomed without mingling or mixing ouer leathers, that is to ſay, part of the ouerleather being of Neats leather, & part of Calues leather, nor ſhall put into any part of any ſhooes, bootes, buſkins, ſtartups, ſlippers, or pantofles, any leather made of a ſheepeſkinne, bull hide, or horſe hide, nor into the vpper leather of any ſhooes, ſtartups, ſlipers or pantofles, or into the nether part of any bootes (the inner ſole and heele of the ſhooe onely except) any part of any hide from which the ſole leather is cut, called the wombe, necke, flanke, poll, or cheeke,

ANno 7. H. 8. cap. 8. A long Act was made concerning a certaine maner and forme for the reuenues and accompts of diuers of the kings lands, aucthorizing certain perſons to be Surueiors of the ſame lands, reuenues, & accompts, with diuers articles concerning thoſe matters, to indure to the diſſolution of the next Parliament. And An. 14. H. 8. the ſaid Act of 7. H. 8. expired. And then in 14. H. 8. there was an other Act made of much like effect, as the former Act that was made An. 7. H. 8. ca. 8. which Act made An. 14. H. 8. was made to indure to thend of the next Parliament. And after An. 27. H. 8. cap. 27. a great Act was made for the execution and aucthoritie of the Court of Augmentations, and that the Abbey landes ſhould be in the ſuruey of the Court. And An. 27. H. 8. cap. 28. the ſaid act made An. 14. H. 8. was made perpetuall, with ſome other clauſes adioyned. And after An. 32. H. 8. cap. 45. the Court of the Firſt fruites and Tenthes was erected, and by that Act, the officers appointed, and the compoſition for the Firſt fruites ſhould be made by the Officers of the Court, and that the Obligations taken therefore, ſhall be of like force as ſtatutes Staple, and like execution thereupon. And there be diuers Articles for theſe matters, and for the accompts of theſe debts. And after An. 33. H. 8. cap. 39. the ſaid Actes made Anno 14. H. 8. and An. 27. H. 8. cap. 28. were made void and repealed. And by the Act of 33. H. 8. cap. 39. is made an erection of the Court of generall Surueiors of diuers of the kinges landes, with aucthoritie to them, to make Leaſes for xxi. yeres, and to take Recogniſance, and to make woodſale, and there be many articles concerning that Court, and for the leuying and true payment of the reuenues of the lands appointed to the Court, and diuers Officers made and appointed for the Court. And after in Anno 7. E. 6. cap. 2. it appeareth that H. 8. by his letters Patents had diſſolued aſwell the ſaid Court of Augmentations erected by Parliament An. 27. H. 8. cap. 27. as the ſaid Court of generall Surueiors of the kings landes, erected by Parliament 33. H. 8. cap. 39. And that after H. 8. by letters Patents erected a Court, called the Court of Augmentations and reuenues of his Crowne. And after An. 7. E. 6. cap. 2. the ſaid letters Patents were confirmed, and aucthoritie giuen to king E. 6. during his life, to alter, vnite, or diſſolue by his letters Patents the ſaid laſt erected Court. And alſo the Court of the Firſt fruites and Tenthes, the Court of the kings Wardes, and the Court of the Duchy of Lancaſter, with diuers articles concerning thoſe matters. But E. 6. died before any ſuch alteration, vniting, or diſſoluing. And after Queene Marie diſſolued the ſaid Courts of Augmentations & Firſt fruites and Tenthes, as appeareth in this Title 13. Note, that in the ſaid Act of 33. H. 8. cap. 39. be diuers matters enacted which yet remaine in force, as here next following.

Prouided alſo, that the othe expreſſed in the ſaid act, made in the ſaid firſt yere, ſhall be taken and expounded in ſuch forme, as is ſet forth, in an Admonition annexed to the Queenes Maieſties Iniunctions, publiſhed in the firſt yeere of her Maieſties reigne: that is to ſay, to confeſſe and acknowledge in her Maieſtie, her heires and ſucceſſours, none other authoritie, then that which was challenged and lately vſed by the noble king Henry the eight, and king Edward the ſixt, as in the ſaid Admonition more plainly may appeare. And be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act ſhall bee openly read and publiſhed, and declared at euery quarter ſeſſions, by the Clerke of the Peace, & at euery Leete and Lawday, by the Steward of the court, and once in euery terme in the open hall of euery houſe and houſes of Court & Chancery, at the times, and by the perſons thereunto to be limited and appointed by the Lord Chancellour or Keeper of the great Seale for the time being. Anno 5. Eliz. cap. 1.

9 Where in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the fifth yeere of the raigne of our ſoueraigne Lady the Queenes Maieſtie that now is, one acte and Statute very good was made, intituled: An acte for the aſſurance of the Queenes Maieſties royall power ouer all ſtates and ſubiects within her highneſſe dominions (which ſee before 8.) for the aboliſhing of the vſurped power and iuriſdiction of the Biſhop of Rome, and of the See of Rome, heretofore vnlawfully claimed & vſurped within this Realme, and other the dominions to the Queenes Maieſtie belonging: And yet neuertheleſſe, diuers ſeditious and verie euill diſpoſed people, minding as it ſhould ſeeme, very ſeditiouſly and vnnaturally, not onely to bring this Realme, and the imperiall Crowne thereof (being in very deede of it ſelfe moſt free) againe into the thraldome and ſubiection of the forraine, vſurped and vnlawfull iuriſdiction, preheminence and authoritie claimed by the ſaid See of Rome: but alſo to eſtrange and alienate the mindes and heartes of ſundry her Maieſties ſubiects, from their dutifull obedience, and to raiſe and ſtirre ſedition and rebellion within this Realme, haue lately procured and obtained to themſelues, from the ſaide Biſhop of Rome, and his ſaide See, diuers buls and writings, the effect whereof hath bene and is, to abſolue, and reconcile all thoſe that will be contented to forſake their due obedience to the Queenes Maieſtie, and to yeeld & ſubiect themſelues to the ſaid fained, vnlawfull and vſurped authoritie: and by colour of the ſaide buls and writings, the ſaide perſons very ſecretly, and moſt ſeditiouſly, in ſuch parts of this realme, where the people for want of good inſtruction are moſt weake, ſimple, and ignorant, & thereby fardeſt from the good vnderſtanding of their dueties towards God and the Queenes Maieſtie, haue by their lewde and ſubtill practiſes and perſwaſions, ſo farre forth wrought, that ſundry ſimple and ignorant perſons haue beene contented to be reconciled to the ſaid vſurped authoritie of the See of Rome, and to take abſolution at the hands of the ſaid naughty and ſubtill practiſers, whereby hath growen great diſobedience and boldneſſe in many, not onely to withdraw and abſent themſelues from all diuine ſeruice, nowe moſt godly ſet forth and vſed within this Realme, but alſo haue thought themſelues diſcharged, of, and from all obedience, dutie and alleageance, to her Maieſtie, whereby moſt wicked and vnnaturall rebellion hath inſued, and to the further danger of this Realme, is hereafter very likely to be renued, if the vngodly & wicked attempts in that behalfe, be not by ſeueritie of lawes, in time reſtrained & brideled: For remedie and redreſſe whereof, and to preuent the great miſchiefes and inconueniences that thereby may inſue: Be it enacted by the Queenes moſt excellent Maieſtie, with the aſſent of the Lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame: that if any perſon or perſons, after the firſt day of Iuly next comming, ſhall vſe or put in vre in any place within this realme, or in any the Queenes dominions, any ſuch bull, writing or inſtrument, written or printed, of abſolution, or reconciliation, at any time heretofore obtained and gotten, or at any time hereafter to be obtained or gotten, from the ſaide Biſhops of Rome, or from any his ſucceſſors, or from any other perſon or perſons authoriſed, or claiming authoritie, by or from the ſaide

And that after ſuch ſentence or iudgement giuen, and declaration thereof made and publiſhed by her Maieſties Proclamation vnder the great Seale of England, all perſons againſt whome ſuch ſentence or iudgement ſhall be ſo giuen and publiſhed, ſhall be excluded and diſabled for euer to haue or claime, or to pretende to haue or claime the Crowne of this Realme, or of any her Maieſties Dominions: any former Lawe or Statute whatſoeuer to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And that thereupon all her Highneſſe ſubiectes ſhall and may lawfully by vertue of this Acte, and her Maieſties direction in that behalfe, by all forcible and poſſible meanes purſue to death euery ſuch wicked perſon, by whom, or by whoſe meanes, aſſent or priuitie any ſuch inuaſion or rebellion ſhall bee in forme aforeſayde denounced to haue beene made, or ſuch wicked act attempted, or other thing compaſſed or imagined againſt her Maieſties perſon, and all their ayders, comforters and abetters. And if any ſuch deteſtable act ſhall be executed againſt her Highneſſe moſt royall perſon, whereby her Maieſties life ſhall bee taken away (which God of his great mercie forbid:) That then euery ſuch perſon, by or for whom any ſuch acte ſhall bee executed, and their iſſues being any wiſe aſſenting or priuie to the ſame, ſhall by vertue of this Act be excluded and diſabled for euer, to haue or claime, or to pretende to haue or claime the ſaide Crowne of this Realme, or of any other her Highnes Dominions: Any former lawe or ſtatute whatſoeuer to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie the ſubiects of all her Maieſties realmes and Dominions, ſhall to the vttermoſt of their power, ayde and aſſiſt the ſaid Counſell, and all other the Lordes and other perſons to bee adioyned vnto them for aſſiſtance, as is aforeſaid, in all things to be done and executed, according to the effect and intention of this law. And that no ſubiect of this realme ſhall in any wiſe be impeached in body, landes or goods, at any time hereafter, for any thing to be done or executed, according to the tenour of this law: any Law or Statute heretofore made to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And whereas of late many of her Maieſties good and faithfull ſubiects, haue in the name of God and with the teſtimonie of good conſciences, by one vniforme maner of writing vnder their hands and ſeales, and by their ſeuerall othes voluntarily taken, ioyned themſelues together in one bond and aſſociation, to withſtand and reuenge to the vttermoſt, al ſuch malicious actions and attempts againſt her Maieſties moſt royall perſon: Now for the full explaning of all ſuch ambiguities and queſtions, as otherwiſe might happen to grow, by reaſon of any ſiniſter or wrong conſtruction or interpretation to be made or inferred, of, or vpon the words or meaning thereof: Be it declared and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that the ſame aſſociation & euery article and ſentence therein contayned, aſwell concerning the diſallowing, excluding, or diſabling of any perſon that may or ſhall pretend any title to come to the Crowne of this realme, as alſo for the purſuing and taking reuenge of any perſon for any ſuch wicked acte or attempt, as is mentioned in the ſame aſſociation, ſhall and ought to be in all things expounded and adiudged according to the true intent and meaning of this act, and not otherwiſe, nor againſt any other perſon or perſons. Aſſociation

12 For auoyding of all frauds and delaies heretofore practiſed, or hereafter to be put in vre, to the hinderance of the due and ſpeedie execution of the Statute made in the xiii. yeare of her Maieſties raigne, (which ſee before 10) Be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that euery feoffement, gift, graunt, conueyance, alienation, eſtate, leaſe, incumbrance, and limitation of vſe, of, or out of any landes, tenements, or hereditaments whatſoeuer, had or made at any time

ſince the beginning of the Queenes Maieſties reigne, or at any time hereafter to bee had or made by any perſon which hath not repaired, or ſhall not repaire to ſome Church, Chappell, or vſuall place of Common prayer, but hath forborne, or ſhall forbeare the ſame, contrarie to the tenour of the ſaid Statute, and which is, or ſhall bee reuokeable at the pleaſure of ſuch offender, or in any wiſe directly or indirectly meant or intended, to, or for the behoofe, reliefe or maintenance, or at the diſpoſition of any ſuch offender, or wherewith, or whereby, or in conſideration whereof ſuch offender, or his familie ſhall be maintained, relieued, or kept, ſhall be deemed and taken to be vtterly fruſtrate and voide, as againſt the Queenes Maieſtie, for, or concerning the leuying and paying of ſuch ſummes of money, as any ſuch perſon by the Laws or Statutes of the realme already made, ought to pay or forfeit, for not comming or repayring to any Church, Chappell, or vſuall place of Common prayer, or for ſaying, hearing, or being at any Maſſe, and ſhall alſo bee ſeiſed and had, to and for her Maieſties vſe, and behoofe, as hereafter in this act is mentioned: any pretence, colour, fained conſideration, or expreſſing of any vſe, to the contrary notwithſtanding. And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euery conuiction heretofore recorded for any offence before mentioned, not already eſtreated or certified into the Queenes Maieſties court of Exchequer, ſhall from the Iuſtices before whom the record of ſuch conuiction ſhall be remayning, be eſtreated & certified into the Queens Maieſties court of Exchequer, before the end of Eaſter terme next comming, in ſuch conuenient certeintie for the time, and other circumſtances, as the court of Exchequer may thereupon awarde out proces for ſeiſure of the lands and goods of euery ſuch offender, as hath not paid their ſaid forfeitures, according to the lawes and ſtatutes in ſuch caſe prouided. And that euery conuiction hereafter for any offence before mentioned, ſhall bee in the court commonly called the Kings Bench, or at the aſſiſes or generall gaole deliuerie, and not elſwhere, & ſhal from the Iuſtices before whom the record of ſuch conuiction ſhall remaine, be eſtreated and certified into the ſaid court of Exchequer, before the end of the terme next enſuing after euery ſuch conuiction, in ſuch conuenient certeintie, as is before mentioned. And be it it alſo enacted &c. that euery ſuch offender in not repairing to diuine Seruice, but forbearing the ſame, contrary to the ſaid eſtatute, as hath beene heretofore conuicted for ſuch offence, and hath not made ſubmiſſion, and beene conformable, according to the true meaning of the ſaid eſtatute, ſhall without any other indictment or conuiction, pay into the receit of the ſaid Exchequer, all ſuch ſummes of money, as according to the rate of twentie poundes for euery moneth, ſithence the ſame conuiction, doe yet remaine vnpayed, in forme as hereafter enſueth, that is to ſay: The one moitie thereof before the end of next Trinitie Terme, and the other moitie thereof before the end of the next Hillarie Terme, or at any ſuch other times, as by the Lord Treaſurer, Chauncellor, and Chiefe Baron of the Exchequer, or any two of them, ſhall by compoſition vpon good band and ſuerty taken, bee limitted, before the ende of the ſaid next Trinitie Terme, if any ſuch compoſition ſhall happen to bee. And ſhall alſo in euery Eaſter and Michaelmaſſe Terme, vntill ſuch time as the ſame perſon doe make ſubmiſſion, and be conformable, according to the true meaning of the ſaid Statute, pay into the ſaid receit of the Exchequer twentie pound for euery moneth, which ſhall incurre in all that meane time. And bee it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euery ſuch offender in not repayring to diuine Seruice, but forbearing the ſame, contrarie to the ſaid eſtatute, as hereafter ſhal fortune to bee thereof once conuicted, ſhall in ſuch of the Termes of Eaſter or Michaelmaſſe, as ſhall be next after ſuch conuiction, pay into the ſaid receit of Exchequer after the rate of twentie pound for euery Moneth, which ſhall bee contayned in the Indictment, whereupon ſuch conuiction ſhall be. And ſhall alſo for euery moneth after ſuch cõuiction without any other indictment or conuiction, pay into the receit of the Exchequer aforeſaid, at two times in the yere: that is to ſay, in euery Eaſter terme & Mich. terme, as much as then ſhall remain vnpayed, after the rate of xx. li. for euerie Moneth after ſuch conuiction. And if default ſhalbe made in any part of payment aforeſaid, contrarie to the forme herein before limited: that then and ſo often the Queenes Maieſtie ſhall and may by Proces out of the ſaid Exchequer, take, ſeiſe, and enioy all the goods, & two parts aſwell of all the lands, tenements and hereditaments, leaſes & farmes of ſuch offender, as of all other the landes, tenements and hereditaments, liable to ſuch ſeiſure, or to the penalties aforeſaid, by the true meaning of this acte, leauing the third part only of the ſame lands, tenements, and hereditaments, leaſes

Indictments

Be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the Indictment of euery ſuch offender mentioning the not comming of ſuch offender to the Church of the pariſh where ſuch perſon at any time before ſuch Indictment was, or did keepe houſe or reſidence, nor to any other Church, Chappell, or vſuall place of Common prayer, ſhalbe ſufficient in the law, and that it ſhall not bee needful to mention in any ſuch Indictment, that the party offender was, or is inhabiting, within this realme of England, or any other the Queenes Maieſties dominions.

But if it ſhall happen any ſuch offender then not to be within this realme, or other her Maieſties dominions, that in ſuch caſe the partie be relieued by plea to be put in that behalfe, and not otherwiſe.

Submiſſion

Prouided alwaies, that whenſoeuer any ſuch offender, as is aforeſaid, ſhall make ſubmiſſion and become conformable, according to the forme limited by the ſaid eſtatute made in the thre and twentieth yere of the Queenes Maieſties reigne, or ſhall fortune to die: that then no forfeiture of twenty pound for any moneth, or ſeiſure of the lands of the ſame offender, from and after ſuch ſnbmiſſion & conformitie, or death, and full ſatiſfaction of all the arrerages of twenty poundes monethlie before ſuch ſeiſure due or payable ſhall enſue or be continued againſt ſuch offender, ſo long as the ſame perſon ſhal continue in comming to diuine Seruice, according to the intent of the ſaid eſtatute. And where by the ſaid former eſtatute, the third part of the forfeitures for not comming to diuine Seruice, is limited to the poore:

L. Treaſorer

Souldiers

Bee it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall and may be lawfull to and for the Lord Treaſurer of England, Chauncellor, and chiefe Baron of the Exchequer, for the time being, or two of them, to aſſigne and diſpoſe of the full third part of twentie poundes for euery moneth, payed or to bee payed into the receit of the Exchequer, as is aforeſaid, for the reliefe and maintenance as well of the poore, and of the houſes of correction, as of impotent and maimed Souldiers, as the ſame Lord Treaſorer, Chauncellor, and chiefe Baron, or any two of them, ſhall order or appoint: any thing in the ſaid eſtatute made in the ſaid three and twentieth yeare of her Maieſties raigne mentioned, to the contrarie thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwayes, that this Act, or any thing therein conteined, ſhall not in any wiſe extend or bee conſtrued to make voyde, or impeach any graunt or leaſe heretofore made bona fide, without fraud or couin, whereupon any yearely rent or payment is reſerued or payable, or any graunt or leaſe hereafter to bee made bona fide, without fraude or couin, whereupon the accuſtomed yearely rent or more ſhall bee reſerued, or any other conueyance, aſſurance, or aſſignement whatſoeuer, heretofore made bona fide, vpon good conſideration, and without fraude or couin, which is not, or ſhall not bee reuokeable at the pleaſure of ſuch offender, otherwiſe then to giue benefit and title to her Maieſtie, her heires and ſucceſſors, to haue, perceiue, and enioy ſuch rents and payments, during the continuance of ſuch leaſe or grant, according to the true meaning of this Acte. And prouided alſo, that this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhal not in any wiſe extend or be conſtrued to continue any ſeiſure of any landes or tenements of ſuch offender in her Maieſties handes, or in the handes of her heires or ſucceſſors, after the ſaid offenders death, which landes or tenements hee ſhall haue or be ſeiſed of onely for terme of his life, or in the right of his wife: any thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And alſo that euery perſon being aboue the age of ſixteene yeares, borne within any her Maieſties realmes or dominions, or made denizen, and hauing, or which hereafter ſhall haue any certaine place of dwelling and abode within this realme, which being then a popiſh Recuſant, ſhall at any time hereafter be lawfullie conuicted for not repayring to ſome Church, Chappell, or vſuall place of Common prayer, to heare diuine Seruice there, but forbearing the ſame contrary to the ſaid lawes and ſtatutes, & being within this realme at the time that they ſhalbe conuicted, ſhall within fortie dayes next after the ſame conuiction (if they bee not reſtreined or ſtayed by impriſonment or otherwiſe as is aforeſaid, and in ſuch caſes of reſtreint and ſtay, then within twentie dayes next after they ſhall bee enlarged of ſuch impriſonment or reſtreint, and ſhall bee able to trauel) repaire to their place of vſuall dwelling and abode, and ſhall not at any time after paſſe or remooue aboue fiue miles from thence, vpon paine that euery perſon and perſons that ſhall offend againſt the tenour and intent of this act in any thing before mentioned, ſhall looſe and forfait all his and their goods and chattels, and ſhall alſo forfeit to the Queenes Maieſtie all the landes, tenements and hereditaments, and all the rents and annuities of euery ſuch perſon ſo doing or offending during the life of the ſame offender. And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euery perſon aboue the age of ſixteene yeares, borne within her Maieſties Realmes or Dominions, not hauing any certaine place of dwelling and abode within this Realme, and being a popiſh Recuſant, not vſually repairing to ſome Church, Chappell, or vſuall place of Common prayer, but forbearing the ſame, contrary to the ſame Lawes and Statutes in that behalfe made, ſhall within fortie dayes next after the end of this Seſſion of Parliament (if they be then within this realme, and not impriſoned, reſtreined or ſtayed as aforeſaid, and in ſuch caſe of abſence out of the realme, impriſonment, reſtreint or ſtay, then within twentie dayes next after they ſhall returne into the realme, and be inlarged of ſuch impriſonment or reſtreint, and ſhall be able to trauaile) repaire to the place where ſuch perſon was borne, or where the father or mother of ſuch perſon ſhall then be dwelling, and ſhall not at any time after remooue or paſſe aboue fiue miles from thence, vpon paine that euery perſon and perſons which ſhall offend againſt the tenour and intent of this act in any thing before mentioned, ſhall looſe and forfeit all his and their goods and chattels, and ſhall alſo forfeit to the Queenes Maieſtie al the lands, tenementes, and hereditaments, and all the rents and annuities of euerie ſuch porſon ſo dooing or offending during the life of the ſame perſon. And bee it further enacted and ordained by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if any perſon which ſhall bee ſuſpected to bee a Jeſuit, Seminary or Maſſing prieſt, being examined by any perſon hauing lawfull authoritie in that behalfe, to examine ſuch perſon which ſhall be ſo ſuſpected, ſhall refuſe to aunſwere directly and truely whether hee bee a Jeſuite, or a Seminarie or Maſſing Prieſt as is aforeſaid, euery ſuch perſon ſo refuſing to aunſwere, ſhall for his diſobedience and contempt in that behalfe, bee committed to priſon by ſuch as ſhall examine him as is aforeſaid, and thereupon ſhall remaine and continue in priſon without bayle or mainpriſe, vntill hee ſhall make direct and true aunſwere to the ſaid queſtions whereupon hee ſhall bee ſo examined. That in euery ſuch caſe euery ſuch perſon ſo bounden, vrged, commaunded, or required to make ſuch apparance, ſhall not incurre any paine, forfaiture, or loſſe, for trauayling to make apparance accordingly, nor for his abode concerning the ſame, nor for conuenient time for his returne backe againe vpon the ſame. And bee it further prouided and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if any ſuch perſon or perſons ſo reſtrained as is aforeſaid, ſhall bee bound, or ought to yeelde and render their bodies to the Shirife of the Countie where they ſhall happen to bee vpon Proclamation in that behalfe, without fraud or couin to bee made. That then in euery ſuch caſe euery perſon which ſhall be ſo bounden, or ought to yeeld and render their body as aforeſaid, ſhall not incurre any paine, forfaiture or loſſe for trauailing for that intent and purpoſe onely, without fraude or couin, nor for conuenient time taken, for their returne backe againe vpon the ſame. And furthermore bee it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that if any perſon or perſons that ſhall at any time hereafter offend againſt this act, ſhall before hee or they ſhalbe thereof conuicted, come to ſome pariſh Church on ſome ſonday or other feſtiual day, and then & there heare diuine ſeruice, and at ſeruice time before the ſermon or reading of the goſpell make publike & open ſubmiſſion and declaration of his and their conformitie to her Maieſties lawes and ſtatutes as hereafter in this Act is declared and appointed, that then the ſame offendor ſhal thereupon be clearely diſcharged of and from all and euery paines and forfaitures inflicted or impoſed by this Acte for any of the ſaid offences in this Acte contayned, the ſame ſubmiſſion to bee made as hereafter followeth. God, in contemning her Maieſties godly and lawfull gouernment and authoritie, by abſenting my ſelfe from Church, and from hearing diuine ſeruice, contrarie to the godlie Lawes and Statutes of this realme, and I am hartilie ſorrie for the ſame, and doe acknowledge and teſtifie in my conſcience, that the Biſhop or Sea of Rome hath not, nor ought to haue any power or authoritie ouer her Maieſtie, or within any her Maieſties Realmes or Dominions: And I doe promiſe and proteſt without any diſſimulation or any colour or meanes of any diſpenſation, that from henceforth I will from time to time obey and performe her Maieſties lawes and Statutes in repayring to the Church, and hearing diuine Seruice, and doe my vttermoſt endeuour to maintaine and defende the ſame. Cui in vita.

In caſe when the huſband loſt by default a tenement that was the right of his wife, it was a hard caſe that the wife after the death of the husbād had none other recouerie but by a writ of Right: Wherefore our ſoueraigne Lord the king hath ordeined, that the woman after the death of her husband, ſhall recouer by a writ of Entre, called Cui ipſa in vita ſua contradicere non potuit, which ſhall be pleaded in forme vnder written. If the Tenant do except againſt the demaund of the wife, that he entred by iudgement, and it be found, that his entrie was by default, whereto the Tenant of neceſſitie muſt make aunſwere, if it be required of him, then he ſhall be further compelled to ſhew his right, according to the forme of the writ that he had purchaſed before againſt the husband and the wife. And if he can verifie that he hath, or had right in the tenement demaunded, the woman ſhall get nothing by her writ. But if he cannot verifie it, the woman ſhall recouer the tenement in demaund. This alſo being obſerued, that if the husband abſented himſelfe, and will not defend his wiues right, or will yeeld vp the tenement againſt his wiues will, if the wife do come in before Iudgement, ready to aunſwere to the demaundant, and to defend her right, the wife ſhall be admitted thereunto. Likewiſe if Tenant in dower, Tenant by the Law of the land, or otherwiſe for terme of life, or by gift, whereas the reuerſion is reſerued, do make default, or will yeeld vp the tenement, the heires, or they to whom the reuerſion belongeth, ſhal be admitted to aunſwere, if they come in before iudgement. And if vpon default or reddition, iudgement happen to bee giuen: then the heires, or they vnto whom the reuerſion belongeth, after the death of ſuch tenants, ſhall haue recouerie by a writ of Entre, in which like proces ſhall be obſerued, as is aforeſaid, in caſe where the husband leeſeth his wiues land by default. And ſo in the caſes aforeſaid, two actions do concurre, one betweene the demaundant and tenant, and the other betweene the tenant, ſhewing his right, and the demaundant, Weſtm̃ 2.cap.3.An.13.E.1.

When a man ſhall take landes in marriage with a wife, if he haue begotten of the ſame his wife an heire, ſonne, or daughter, which ſhall be heard to cry, within the fower walles, if the ſame husband ouerliue his wife, whether the heire liue or not, the ſame land ſhall remaine to the husband, and after the death of the husband, the landes ſhall returne to the donour, or to his heire: but if he haue no heire by his wife, then after the death of the wife, it ſhall returne to the donour, or to his heire. And this is the cauſe why for land giuen in marriage, Homage is not vſed to be receiued: for if any landes were ſo giuen in marriage, or otherwiſe, that homage were receiued, it might then neuer lawfully reuert to the donour, or to his heire, as aboue is ſaid. And the ſame iudgement ſhall be of the ſecond husband, as is ſaid of the firſt, whether there be left any heire of the firſt or not. Of Tenants by the Law of England. two parts ſhall be to the king, and the third part to the finder. Alſo it is ordeined by the ſame aucthoritie, that the Collectors of the ſame ſubſidie, and the ſaid Comptroller, ſhall at all times requiſite, be ready to ſeale ſuch marchandizes, and to ſeale the ſame at all times when they be required, without delay, or taking any thing for the ſame in any wiſe, vpon pain of forfeiture to the Owner therof twentie ſhillinges, for euery of the ſaid Collectors and Comptrollers at any time that they refuſe to ſeale ſuch marchandize after ſuch requeſt made, or taking any thing for the ſealing of any ſuch marchandize. Alſo it is ordeined by the aucthoritie aforeſaid, that all maner of ſuch Clothes of Gold, of Siluer, Bawdkin, Veluet, Damaſke, Satten, Sarcenet, Tartaron, Chamblet, and euery other cloth of Silke, corſe of Gold, and Silke, now being within this Realme, and after the feaſt of Saint Michaell the Archangell next comming, offered to ſell, ſhall be ſealed with the ſaid Seales before the ſaid feaſt, vpon the paine before ſpecified. Alſo whereas it is expreſſed in the ſaid graunt of the ſaid ſubſidie, that if any concealment be found in the Marchants in the payment of the ſaid dueties, that they for ſuch concealment, ſhall pay onely double ſubſidie, without other paine or forfeiture therein, as in the ſame act is more fully conteined. The King conſidering that notwithſtanding the ſame ordinance, Marchants do not regard to defraud him of his duetie of the ſaid Subſidie, in aſmuch as they doe nothing forfait in that behalfe, but onely pay the double Subſidie: By the aduice, aſſent, and aucthoritie aforeſaid, hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that the ſame Statute in this behalfe be void, and of no ſtrength. And if any marchandizes which be to be brought from the partes beyond the Sea, or to be caried out of this Realme, whereof any Subſidie is or ſhall be due, or perteyning to the king, be hereafter ſhipped to be carried beyond the Sea, the Collectours of the ſaid ſubſidie not payed, or without agreement with the Collectours of the ſaid ſubſidie for the ſame: that then the ſaid marchandizes, or the value thereof ſhall be forfeit to the King. Alſo whereas diuers Marchant ſtrangers, and other, oftentimes in the Citie of London, and in other places, haue packed diuers woollen clothes, ſome in graine, ſome vngrained, and other clothes not grained, and the ſame ſo packed, cauſed to bee carried by land, from London and other places, to other Portes, as to Sandwich, Southhampton, and other Ports, whereas the Cuſtomers for the time being, without due packing or ſight of ſuch Clothes, vpon the information of the Marchant, do cuſtome ſuch clothes as for courſe clothes, whereby the king is greatly deceiued of his dueties thereof, aſwell in the fineſſe of ſuch clothes, as in not knowing of the number of the clothes ſo packed: Therefore the King by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaid, and by the ſame aucthoritie, doth ordeine, eſtabliſh, and enact, that in euery Port within this Realme of England, wherein any wollen Clothes ſhall be packed, after the firſt day of May next comming, in the preſence of the Collectours of the aforeſaid Cuſtomes and Subſidies of the ſame Port for the time being, that all ſuch Cuſtomes and Subſidies due and perteining to the king for the ſaid Clothes, ſhall be paied and contented to the ſame Collectours where the ſaid Clothes be ſo packed, or els ſufficient ſuerties ſhall be therefore to them found, before that the ſame clothes bee carried from the ſaid Port, to any other Port or place, vpon paine of forfeiture of all the ſame clothes, or the value thereof, to be had of the owner of the ſame. And if any woollen Clothes to bee carried ouer the Sea, be packed in any other manner, or vnder any other forme: that then the Collectours of the Port where they bee ſo packed, or brought to be packed, ſhall ſeiſe, and there vnpacke all the ſaid packes and fardels, and ſuruey all the clothes therein, ſo that our Soueraigne Lord the King may be truely aunſwered of his duetie in this behalfe, without any fraud or deceit. And if any Cuſtomer or Comptroller of any Port or place be negligent or ſlacke, in vnpacking of the ſaid clothes, or ſurueying of them, in the forme aforeſaid: that then and as often euery ſuch Cuſtomer and Comptroller, for euery ſuch default, ſhall forfeit to our Soueraigne Lord the king xx. ſhillings for euery ſuch Cloth. Moreouer, it is ordeined by the aduice & the aſſent aforeſaid, that euery of the ſaid Collectors, receyuing any cuſtome or ſubſidie for any of the ſaid clothes, or ſuertie for the ſame, ſhal be therof charged & chargeable to our Soueraigne Lord the king, vpon his or their account. And that the ſame Collector or Collectors ſhall from time to time, make a cocket, or cockets of all ſuch clothes, directed to the Collectors of the Port where the ſame clothes ſhall be ſhipped, witneſſing their number, & that he or they haue receiued the cuſtomes & ſubſidies of the ſame clothes, or ſuertie for the ſame, By which cocket or

And foraſmuch as many times it may come to paſſe, that the Queenes highneſſe, her heires or ſucceſſors, ſhall not, or may not be conueniently ſatiſfied of the debt to be determined, or due vpon any accompt or farme, as is aforeſaid, by way of extent, for that the yeerely value of the landes extended will not ſatiſfie her Highneſſe, her heires or ſucceſſours, within the compaſſe of many yeeres, ſo as thereby great loſſe might enſue to her Highneſſe, her heires and ſucceſſors: For remedie thereof, bee it further enacted, that if any Treaſorer, Receiuor, Collector, Farmer, Cuſtomer, Teller, Collector of Cuſtome, Subſidie or Impoſt, or other perſon Accomptant before mentioned, which ſhall from or after the feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell, now next comming receiue or be chargeable with any Money or Treaſure of our ſayde Soueraigne Lady the Queene, her heires or ſucceſſors, and ſhall vpon the determining of his or their accompt (all his and their due petitions to thẽ vpon the ſame accompt being allowed) or by reaſon of any farme, as aforeſayd, be found in arrerages, or to owe vnto our ſayde Soueraigne Lady the Queene, her heires or ſucceſſors, any ſumme or ſummes of money, and ſhal not within the ſpace of 6. And bee it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaide, that if any perſon or perſons accomptant, or indebted, as is aforeſayd, ſhall at any time after hee or they ſhall become accomptant or chargeable, as is aforeſaid, purchaſe and buy, or cauſe to be purchaſed & bought, any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, and cauſe the aſſurance thereof to be made in the name of any other perſon or perſons, where the ſame is indeed meant or intended to the vſe, profite, or behoofe of ſuch perſon accomptant or indebted, or of any other perſon or perſons, and that the ſame maner of purchaſing, and ſecret vſes, profits, or behoofes, ſhall be found by office or inquiſition: that then all and euery landes, tenements, and hereditaments, ſo to be bought or purchaſed, or cauſed to be purchaſed, as is before mentioned in this laſt Prouiſo, ſhall by vertue of this acte, bee taken, deemed, and vſed for the ſatiſfaction of the arrerages and debt of euery ſuch accomptant or debtor, as is aboue mentioned, to all intents and purpoſes, as though the perſon or perſons indebted, vpon his or their accompt or farme, were thereof actually ſeiſed of ſuch eſtate as was conueyed to any perſon or perſons, by any ſuch accõptant or debtor, or by his meanes, as is aforeſaid. Maieſties money and treaſure, ſithence the beginning of her Maieſties reigne, and haue moſt fraudulently imployed her Maieſties money & treaſure which they had in their charge, in ſundrie wiſe to their owne vſes, partly in the purchaſing her Maieſties owne landes, and partly in purchaſing landes of other, and to the intent the ſame ſhould not be lyable to ſatiſfie & pay her Maieſtie, her heires or ſucceſſours, of that which to her or them ſhould appertaine, haue purchaſed the ſame, ſometimes in their owne names, and ſometimes in the names of ſundrie their friendes and kinſfolkes, wiues and children, & yet neuertheleſſe haue taken and receiued the rentes and reuenues thereof, to their owne vſes: Bee it therefore further enacted and ordeined by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and ſinguler landes, tenements and hereditaments, which any Treaſorer, Receiuor, Teller, Cuſtomer, Collector, Officer, or Accomptant before named, hath heretofore ſince the beginning of the Queenes Maieſties Raigne, purchaſed, or cauſed to be purchaſed, to the intent the ſame ſhould not be lyable, as is aforeſayde, (the fraud and couin aforeſayde beeing firſt found by office or inquiſition) ſhall and may be ſeiſed and taken by her Maieſtie, her heires and ſucceſſours, and retained by her Maieſtie, her heires and ſucceſſours in fee ſimple, to be ſold, or otherwiſe vſed at her and their wils and pleaſures, towards the payment and ſatiſfaction of all and euery arrerages, alreadie ſet or determined, and adiudged, or that hereafter ſhall bee ſet, determined, or adiudged, vpon his or their accompt, (all reaſonable and due petitions being allowed) at ſuch rate and value, as the ſame were purchaſed or bought, or cauſed to be purchaſed or bought by any ſuch Treaſorer, Receiuer, Teller, Cuſtomer, or Collector before named, or by any other perſon to their vſe. Prouided alwayes, that if the landes and tenements ſo to bee ſeiſed, taken, or ſold, by her Maieſtie, her heires or ſucceſſors, as is laſt aboue mentioned, do ſurmount after the rate and value aforeſaide, the debts and arrerages to be ſet, determined, or adiudged, vpon the accompt of any Treaſorer, Receiuor, Teller, Cuſtomer, Collector or Accomptant before named: That then her Maieſtie, her heires and ſucceſſours, ſhal take and ſeiſe onely ſo much as ſhall amount after the rate and value aforeſaide, to the iuſt payment and ſatiſfaction of ſuch debt and arrerages, as hath bene, or ſhall bee ſet, determined, or adiudged vpon his or their accompt, as is aforeſaid. Prouided alwayes, and be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaide, that no Biſhop, hauing the collection of any Subſidie or Tenthes, or any his landes, tenements, or hereditaments, whereof hee is ſeiſed in the right of his Biſhopricke, ſhal be charged by vertue of this acte, for any arrerages of tenthes or ſubſidie, otherwiſe, or in any other maner then he might lawfully haue bene before the making of this act: any thing therein contained to the contrary thereof notwithſtandiug. And be it alſo further prouided and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act, or any thing therein conteined, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to charge any treaſorer, receiuor, teller, cuſtomer, collector, or accomptant aforeſaid, hauing any yeerely receipt, nor any their landes, tenements, Prouided alway that this act ſhal not extend to charge any Shirife, Eſchetor or Bailife of liberties, or the lands, tenements or hereditaments of any Shirife, Eſchetor, or Bailife of liberties, nor of any their heires or aſſignes, for any thing touching his or their office of Shirifewike, Eſchetorſhip, or Bailifewike, nor for any money by him or thẽ receiued, or to be receiued, by reaſõ of any their ſayd offices, otherwiſe, or in any other maner then hee or they might lawfully haue bin charged before yͤ making of this act: any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtandiug. 8 Where in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the ſecond day of Aprill, in the thirteenth yeere of the Reigne of our Soueraigne Ladie Queene Elizabeth, there was amongſt other thinges an Acte made, intituled: An Acte to make the landes, tenements, goods and cattels of Tellers, Receiuors, &c. lyable to pay their debtes, vpon which Acte, ſome doubt and queſtion hath beene moued, whether the Queenes Highneſſe, her Heires and Succeſſours, might for the ſatiſfaction of her and their debts and farmes, by her or their Letters Patents, vnder the great Seale of England, make ſale of any the Landes, Tenements or Hereditaments, whereof her Highneſſe, her Heires or Succeſſours haue power or authoritie to make ſale by vertue of the ſame Acte, after the death of ſuch Accomptant or debtor, as is mentioned in the ſaide Acte, or where the accompt of ſuch Accomptant or Debtor was not, or is not made, or his or their debte knowen in the life time of the ſame Accomptant or Debtor. For declaration and explanation whereof: Be it declared and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that the ſaide Acte in euery part thereof, touching the power giuen by that recited Acte vnto her Highneſſe, her Heires and Succeſſours, to make ſale of any the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, by the ſame Acte limited to be ſolde, is, ſhall, and ought to bee expounded and intended, as well in caſe where the ſale is to bee made after the death of ſuch Accomptant or Debtor, as where it is to bee made in his or their life time. And alſo as well in caſe where the accompt is made, or the debt knowen, within eight yeeres after the death of ſuch Accomptant or Debtor, as where the ſame accompt is made, or debt knowen, in the life time of the ſame Accomptant or Debtor: any ambiguitie, or queſtion that hath riſen or growen, or may ariſe, growe, or bee conceiued vpon the letter of the ſame Acte, to the contrarie thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Prouided alwayes, and bee it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that after the death of ſuch Accomptant and Debtor, as is mentioned in the ſaide recited Acte, and before ſuch time as any the lands, tenements & hereditaments deſcended vnto the heire of ſuch Accomptant or Debtor, as heire vnto the ſaide Accomptant or Debtor, ſhall bee ſolde as aforeſaide, a Scire facias ſhall bee awarded out of her Maieſties Courte of Eſchequer vnto the Shiriffe of the Countie where any ſuch Landes doe lie, to garniſh the ſame heire, to ſhewe cauſe why the ſame Landes, Tenements, and Hereditaments ſo to him deſcended, as is aforeſaide, ſhould not be put to ſale for ſatiſfaction of the ſaid Debts or Farmes in the ſame acte mentioned, according to the tenor of the ſaid act: whereupon if the ſaide heire doe not within a conuenient time vpon a garniſhment, or two Nichils returned,

And if any, of what eſtate ſoeuer he be, diſtraine his tenant for ſeruices and cuſtomes being due vnto him, or for any other thing, wherefore the Lord of the fee hath cauſe to diſtraine, and after it is found, that the ſame ſeruices are not due, the Lord ſhall not therefore be puniſhed by redemption, as in the caſes aforeſaid, if he doe ſuffer the diſtreſſes to be deliuered, according to the law and cuſtome of the Realme, but ſhal be amerced, as hitherto hath been vſed, and the tenant ſhall recouer his dammages againſt him, Marleb. cap. 3. 7 It is prouided, that if any from henceforth take the beaſtes of other, and cauſe them to be driuen into a Caſtle or fortreſſe, & there within the cloſe of ſuch caſtle or fortreſſe do withhold them againſt gage and pledges, whereupon the beaſts be ſolemnely demaunded by the Shirife, or by ſome other Bailife of the Kings, at the ſuit of the plaintife, and the ſame Shirife or Bailife taking with him the power of the Shire or Bailywike, do aſſay to make pleuin of the beaſtes from him that tooke them, or from his Lord, or from other being ſeruants of the Lord (whatſoeuer they be) that are found in the place whereunto the beaſtes were inchaſed: if any deforce him of the deliuerance of the beaſtes, or that no man be found for the Lord, or for him that tooke them, for to aunſwere and make the deliuerance after ſuch time as the Lord or the taker ſhall be admoniſhed to make deliuerance by the Shirife or Bailife, if he be in the Countrey, or neere, or there where as he may be conueniently warned by the taker, or by any other of his to make deliuerance, if he were out of the Countrey, when the taking was, and do not then cauſe the beaſtes to be deliuered incontinent: then the king for the treſpaſſe and deſpite, ſhall cauſe the ſaid caſtle or fortreſſe to be beaten downe without recouerie. And all the damages that the plaintife hath ſuſtained in his beaſtes, or in his gainure, or any otherwiſe (after the firſt demaund made by the Shirife or Bailife for the beaſtes) ſhall be reſtored to him double by the Lord, or by him that tooke the beaſtes, if he haue whereof, and if he haue not whereof, he ſhall haue it of the Lord, at what time, or in what maner the deliuerance be made, after that the Shirife or Bailife ſhall come to make deliuerance. And it is to wit, that where the Shirife ought to returne the kings writ to the baylife of the Lord, or of the caſtle or fortreſſe, or to any other, to whom the returne belongeth, if the Bailife of the franchiſe will not make deliuerance, after that the Shirife hath made his returne vnto him, then ſhall the Shirife execute and doe his office without further delay, and vpon the foreſaid paine, notwithſtanding any ſuch libertie. And in the ſame maner ſhall deliuerance be made vpon attachment of a plaint made without writ, and vpon the ſame pain. And this is to be vnderſtood euery where, where the kinges writ runneth. And if it be in the Marches of Wales, or in any other place, where the kings writ doe not runne, the King which is chiefe and Soueraigne Lord ouer all, ſhall doe right there, vnto ſuch as will complaine, Weſt. 1. cap. 17. 3 In caſe where the huſband being impleaded for land, giueth plainely vp the land demaunded vnto his aduerſarie, after the death of the huſband, the Iuſtices haue awarded to the wife her Dower, if ſhee demaund it by Writ. But in caſe where the huſband leeſeth by default the land in demaund, and the wife after the death of her huſband demaundeth her Dower, it hath bin ſeene that ſome Iuſtices haue awarded vnto the woman her Dower, notwithſtanding the default which her huſband made, other Iuſticers being of the contrarie opinion, and iudgtng otherwiſe. To the intent that from henceforth ſuch ambiguitie ſhall be taken away and put in certaine: It is prouided, that in both caſes the woman demaunding her Dower, ſhall be heard. And if it be alleaged againſt her, that her huſband loſt the land, whereof the Dower is demaunded by iudgement, whereby ſhee ought not to haue Dower, and then it be demaunded by what iudgement, and it be found that it was by default, (whereunto the tenant muſt aunſwere:) then it behoooueth him to aunſwere further, & to ſhew that he had, and hath right in the foreſaid land, according to the forme of the writ, that the tenant before purchaſed againſt the huſband. And if he can ſhew, that the huſband of ſuch wife had no right in the landes, nor none other but onely he, then he ſhall go quite, and the wife ſhall recouer no Dower: But if he cannot ſhew ſo much, the wife ſhall recouer her dower. And ſo in theſe caſes, and in certaine other following: that is to ſay, when the wife being endowed leeſeth her dower by default, and tenants in free mariage, by the law of England, or for terme of life, or in fee taile, diuers actions do concurre: For when ſuch tenants are to demaund the land loſt by default, and it is come to that point, that they muſt be compelled to ſhew their right, for aſmuch as they cannot of right make aunſwere without them, to whom the reuerſion belongeth: Therefore be it graunted vnto them, that they may vouch to warrantie, according to the tenour of the writ, as if they were tenants, if they haue any warrantie. And when the warrantor hath warranted, the plea ſhall proceede betweene him that is ſeiſed and the warrantor, according to the tenour of the writ that the tenant purchaſed before, and by which he recouered by default: And ſo from many actions at length they ſhall deſcend to one iudgement, which is to this, that either the demandants ſhall recouer their demaund, or that the tenants ſhall go quite. And if the action of ſuch tenant, which is compelled to ſhew his right, was mooued by a writ of Right, though that the great aſſiſe or battell cannot be ioyned by words accuſtomed, yet it may be ioyned by words conuenient enough: for whereas the tenant in that that he ſheweth his right which belongeth to him, by the writ that he before purchaſed is in ſteede of a demandant, the warrantor may well defend the right of the tenant, which is come in place of a demandant, as before is ſaid, and may offer the ſeiſin of his aunceſtor, and to defend it by the bodie of a freeman, or may put himſelfe vpon the great aſſiſe, & pray that the inquirie may be made thereof, whether he hath more right to the land being in demaund, or elſe the foreſaid ſuch a one: or the great aſſiſe may be ioyned otherwiſe, and ſo the warrantor may defend the right, and knowledge the ſeiſin of his aunceſtor, and put himſelfe vpon the great aſſiſe &c. and pray inquirie to be made, whether he hath more right in the foreſaid land, as in that whereof he infeoffed ſuch a man, or that ſuch a one releaſed and quite claimed &c. or elſe the aforeſaid partie &c. And where ſometime it chanceth that a woman which hath no right to demaund dower of the land of an heire being within age, doth purchaſe a writ of Dower againſt the Gardein, and the gardein yeeldeth dower to the woman by fauor, or maketh default, or by colluſion defendeth the plea ſo faintly, whereby the wife is awarded her dower in preiudice of the heire: It is prouided, that the heire, when he commeth to full age, ſhall haue ſuch action to demaund the ſeiſin of his aunceſtor againſt his wife, as he ſhould haue againſt any other deforceor, Prouided alwaies, that the wife ſhall haue her exception ſaued againſt the demaundant, to ſhew that ſhe had right to her dower, which if ſhe can ſhew, ſhe ſhall go quite, & reteine her dower, and the heire ſhall be grieuouſly amerced, according to the diſcretion of the Juſticers: And if not, the heire ſhall recouer his demand. In like maner the wife ſhall be aided, if the heire, or any other doe implead her for her dower, if ſhe loſe her dower by default: In which caſe ẏ default ſhal not be ſo preiudicial to her, but that ſhe ſhall recouer her dower, if ſhe haue right thereto, and ſhe ſhall haue this writ. And to this writ the tenant ſhall haue his exception, for to ſhew that ſhe had no right to be endowed, which if he can verifie, he ſhall go quite, & if not, the wife ſhall recouer the land whereof ſhe was endowed before. And whereas before time, if a man had loſt his land by default, he had none other recouerie then by a writ of Right, which was not maintenable by any that could not ſpeak of meere right, as be tenants for terme of life, in free marriage, or in taile, in which caſes a reuerſion is reſerued: It is prouided, that from hēceforth their default ſhall not be ſo preiudiciall, but that they may recouer their eſtate, if they haue right by another writ then by a writ of right. And be it further enacted, that if any of the ſaid ſearchers ſo to bee appointed by the ſaid Maior, being a freemã of the ſaid city, or by the Maior, Bailife, or other head officer of any city, borough or town corporate, as is aforeſaid, hauing no reaſonable excuſe doe refuſe to take vpon him to be a ſearcher & doe not vſe the office of a ſearcher as is aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit and loſe for euerie ſuch refuſal, and not executing of his office ſo to him appointed v. li. And foraſmuch as there bee now in this time many falſe and deceiueable colours made in diuers places of this Realme, whereby many of the kings louing ſubiects are deceiued: Be it enacted that frõ and after the ſaid feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell next comming, no perſon or perſons ſhall put to ſale by retaile within this realme, any cloth or clothes which ſhall bee made after the ſaid feaſt, of any other colour or colours, then is hereafter expreſſed: that is to ſay, ſcarlet, redde, crimſon, murrey, violet, puke, browne, blew, blacks, greene, yellowes, blewes, orenge tawney, ruſſet, marble, grayſad new colour, azure, watchet, ſheepes colour, lyon colour, motley, or yron gray, vpon paine that euery perſon ſo offending to the contrary, ſhall loſe and forfeit the value of the cloth ſold by retaile which ſhall be of any other colour. And further if any perſon or perſons (but ſuch as are appointed, aſſigned and permitted by this Act) doe at any time after the ſaid feaſt counterfeit, ſet to, or take away frõ any of the clothes, kerſies, frizes, rugs or cottons aforeſaid, any of the ſeales ſo to be fixed, as is aboue recited: that then euery perſon ſo offending, ſhall for the firſt offence (being thereof duely conuicted by verdict of xii. men, by two ſufficient witneſſes, or by confeſſion of the party) forfeit and loſe x. li. And for the ſecond offence (being likewiſe thereof conuicted) ſhall be ſet on the pillorie, and loſe and forfeit to our Soueraigne Lord the king all ſuch his goods & cattels (his debts being duely & truely paid without fraude or couin) as hee had or ſhall haue at the time of his conuiction. And be it further enacted, that if betweene the 1. day of May next comming, and the feaſt of ſaint Michael the Archangell then next comming, any perſon or perſons which now doth vſe the arte or miſterie of draperie or clothmaking, ſhall giue ouer drapring or clothmaking, except he be licenced ſo to doe by three Juſtices of peace at the leaſt, of the city, countie, borough or towne corporat, where he dwelleth, vpon ſome reaſonable cauſe ſhewed vnto the ſaid Juſtices, ſhall neuer after take vpon him to make or cauſe to be made any kind of cloth or kerſey, to ſell the ſame againe, vpon paine of forfeiture of euery ſuch cloth or kerſey that he ſhal, ſo ſell. And be it further enacted, that all and euery article, clauſe or ſentence in any act of Parliament heretofore made, concerning making, dying, dreſſing, preſſing, ſearching or ſealing any of the kindes of clothes broad or narrow, white or coloured kerſies, frizes, rugges, or cottons heretofore in this act mentioned, and being repugnant or contrariant to any article or ſentence in this ſtatute, ſhall from the feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell next, bee vtterly voide and of none effect. And to the intent that all ſuch clothes as ſhalbe made within this realme, or any other the kings dominions, after the ſaid feaſt, ſhall be the better knowen from the other clothes made before the ſame time: Bee it &c. that from and after the ſaid feaſt, the letter E. crowned, ſhall not be wrought in the cloth, for and by the ſpace of two yeares then

default,

60 Where in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the fiue and ſixe yeare of the reigne of our late Soueraigne Lord King Ed. the ſixt (before 52) there was by great deliberation and aduiſe, one good act made for the true and perfect making of woollen cloth within this realme, ſithence the making whereof, diuers clothiers found themſelues agrieued, alledging that it is vnpoſſible for them to obſerue the ſame act in all points, & haue in this preſent parliament prayed ſome mitigation thereof: It is therefore at their ſpeciall inſtance and requeſt, ordered, eſtabliſhed, enacted and prouided in maner & forme following. In primis that euery white cloth and clothes commonly called long Worceſters, and all like cloth of like making, mentioned in the ſaid act which by the ſame was limited to weigh lxxxiiii. pounds, being well ſcoured, thicked, milled and fully dried, ſhall weigh lxxv. pound at the leaſt: Item euerie white cloth which ſhall bee made in the counties of Wiltſhire, Gloceſter, and Somerſet, or any of them, or elſwhere, of like making, being appointed by the ſaid acte to weigh lxiiii. pounds, ſhall weigh being well ſcoured, thicked, milled, and fully dryed lxi. pounds at the leaſt. This is altered in part after 68. Item, euery broad cloth made in the Shires of Kent and Suſſex, or at the towne of Redding, or any of them, or elſwhere, of like making, mentioned in the ſaid act, which by the ſame was limitted to weigh lxxx. poundes at the leaſt, ſhall weigh being well ſcoured, thicked, milled & fully dried lxxvi. pound at the leaſt. Itē that euery courſe ſhort cloth made in the ſhires of Suff. Norff. and Eſſex, or any of them, or elſwhere of like ſort, and euerie courſe cloth to bee made within the ſhire of Kent, not exceeding the price of vi. ponnd, all which by the ſaid act are appointed to contein ſeuen quarters of a yard at the leaſt in bredth, ſhal conteine & be at the water, being thorow wet ſixe quarters and a halfe within the liſt, thorow, and by al the whole cloth at the leaſt. Item euery yard of cloth commonly called handy warp, being well ſcoured, thicked, mil-

led & fully dried, ſhall conteine the bredth ſpecified in the ſaid act, & ſhall weigh two poũds and a halfe at the leaſt. And forasmuch as many perſons do counterfet the making of cockſall, bocking & braintree clothes, commonly called handwarps, adding thereunto ſuch like liſt, as the makers of ſuch clothes doe, to the great diſceit of the King and Queens Maieſties ſubiects. Bee it therefore enacted, that no perſon or perſons frõ the firſt day of May next cõming, ſhall adde vnto any cloth or clothes any ſuch like liſt or liſts, except the warp thereof be ſpunne vpon the rocke or diſtaffe, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame cloth or clothes, or the very value thereof. Prouided alwaies that the cloth makers within the city of Worceſter, may make ſuch liſtes as they haue done heretofore. Item, that no perſon or perſons inhabiting within the weſt riding, in the County of Yorke, ſhall make or cauſe to be made, any broad cloth or clothes, called pewkes, townies, violets or greenes, except the wooll thereof before it be conuerted into yarne, be firſt dryed, litted and coloured with the colour blew, of the value of ii. d. a pound, vpon paine of forfeiture of euery ſuch coloured cloth, or the value thereof, whereof the wooll ſhall not be firſt died, litted & coloured with the colour blew of ii. d. a pound as is aforeſaid. Item, that euery ordinary kerſey mentioned in the ſaid Acte ſhall conteine in length in the water betwixt xvi. and xvii. yardes, yard and inch, and being wel ſcoured, thicked, milled dreſſed and fully dried, ſhall weigh xix. pounds the peece at the leaſt. And euery kerſey called ſorting kerſey, mentioned in the ſaid act, being well ſcoured, thicked, milled, dreſſed and fully dryed to bee ſhewed, ſhall weigh xxii. pounds at the leaſt. Item that euery Deuonſhire kerſey, called dozens, the which is appointed by the ſame ſtatute to weigh being drie xiiii. pound at the leaſt, ſhall weigh being well ſcoured, thicked, milled & fully dried, after the rate of euery yarde one pound at the leaſt. Item that one article mentioned in the ſaid Statute concerning welſh cottons, touching the length & weight, ſhall be clerely void: and euery goad of welſh lining ſhall conteine & be three quarters of a yard in bredth in the water, and ſhall weigh one pound & a halfe quarter, & euerie yard of cotton being fully wrought & cottoned ſhall weigh one pound at the leaſt. And be it further enacted, that no perſon or perſons which ſhall buy to ſell againe by way of retaile or otherwiſe, any of the ſaid welſh linings, ſhall dreſſe or worke, or cauſe to bee dreſſed or wrought within his or their dwelling houſe or houſes, or in any other place, by himſelfe, or his ſeruant or ſeruãts, any of the ſaid welſh linings, but ſhal put yͤ ſame to ſome ſuch perſon or perſons, as ſhall be of the art or ſcience of ſheremen, cottoners, or friſers, to be by thẽ wrought and dreſſed, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie welſh cotton or lining, friſed or cottoned to the contrary vi. s. viii. d. (See ſome addition to this article after 63.) Item that all and euerie cotton or cottons, called Mancheſter, Lancaſhire, and Cheſhire cottons & all clothes called Mancheſter rugs, or Mancheſter friſes, may bee diuided into two halfe peeces, and ſhal conteine and be after the rate of ſuch breadth and weight, as in the ſaide act is limited and appointed to a whole peece of euery of the ſeuerall peeces of cottons and rugges aforeſaid: any thing in the ſaid former ſtatute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And if any cloth or kerſey, of the ſeuerall kindes of makings, mentioned in the ſaid former act, or this eſtatute, doe exceed the ſeuerall lengths mentioned in the ſame: that then euery yard ſo exceeding, ſhall weigh after ſuch rate as euery yard of ſuch cloth or kerſeys conteining the ſaid ſeuerall lengths, ſhall or ought to weigh, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery yard not weighing after ſuch rate v. s. And if any ſuch cloth or kerſey ſhall lacke of ſuch weight, as by the ſaid ſtatute, or this act it ought, & is appointed to haue, then the maker thereof, or other perſon in whoſe handes or poſſeſſions the ſame bee found, ſhall forfeit for euery pound lacking aboue iiii. pound, v. s. and alſo for euery pound exceeding not aboue iiii. pound, ii. s. in maner and forme, as in the ſaid former act is appointed. Item, one article mentioned in the ſaid ſtatute, wherein the Aulnegeor is prohibited to ſet his ſeale to any cloth or kerſey which ſhall prooue purſey, baudy, ſqually, in, or by warpe or woofe, or els ſhall happen to be euill burled, or waſted in the mill, or otherwiſe to be full of holes, milbracks, or to be holely, ſhal be void & of none effect. Item it is enacted, that if at any time after the firſt day of May, any cloth or kerſey through yͤ default or negligence of the carders, ſpinners, or weauers, or any of them, ſhal or do proue either purſey, cockley, baudy, ſqually, or rowy, by warpe or woofe, or els ſhal happen to be euill burled or waſted in the mill, or els through the default or negligence of the mill man, or otherwiſe to be full of holes, milbrackes, or to be holely: that then the maker of euery ſuch cloth or kerſey ſo being defectiue or faultie, as is aforeſaid, ſhall fixe vnto euerie end of the ſaide cloth or kerſey ſo being defectiue

Prouided alwayes, that ſuch Marchant ſhall not in any wiſe haue by vertue of this acte, any recompence for lacke of length, breadth, or weight, of, or for any cloth, whereunto the ſeale of any Citie, borough, or towne corporate ſhal be fixed. Item if any perſon ſhall by himſelfe, or by any other perſon by him procured, counterfeit, ſet to, or take away from any cloth, kerſey, friſe, rugge, or cotton, any ſeal appointed to be fixed to any cloth, kerſey, friſe, rugge, or cotton, either by this act, or by the ſaid former eſtatute: that then euery ſuch perſon ſo offending ſhall incurre & haue like penalties, forfaitures, and puniſhments, as in the ſaid former act is appointed and limitted for the like offence. And for the better execution, aſwell of this preſent act, as of the ſaid former eſtatute, and to the intent that all kind of kerſeis, cottons, friſes, rugges, and other woollen cloth made in any towne, ſhall be the better knowen: It is further enacted, that the Seale of euery borough or towne corporate, appointed, or to be appointed for the ſealing of any ſuch kind of cloth, ſhall be fixed to all and euery ſuch kind of cloth, being well and ſubſtantially made within ſuch Citie, borough, or towne corporate, which cloth ſo ſealed with the ſeale of any citie, borough, or town corporate, ſhall not be ſearched, tried, or viewed by any ſearcher or ſealer of any other citie, borough, or towne corporate, by vertue of his ſaid office: any thing in this act, or in the ſaid former ſtatute to the contrarie notwithſtanding. 66 Whereas in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the 4. and 5. yeeres of the reignes of our late Soueraigne Lord and Ladie, king Philip and Queene Mary, one ſtatute was made, intituled, An act touching the making of Woollen clothes (before 60.) whereby (among other things) it was ordeined and enacted, by the auctoritie of the ſaid Parliament, that from and after the firſt day of May then next comming, no perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, ſhould vſe or exerciſe the feat or myſterie of making, weauing, or rowing of woollen cloth, long or ſhort, or kerſies, pinned whites, or plaine ſtreites, to the intent to put the ſame to ſale, but onely in a Market towne, where cloth commonly hath been vſed to be made by the ſpace of tenne yeeres then laſt paſt, or in a Citie, Borough, or Towne corporate, vpon paine of forfaiture for euery ſuch woollen cloth or kerſie made, wouen, or rowed, out of ſuch citie, borough, Towne corporate, or Market towne v. li. as by the ſaid Act amongſt diuers clauſes, articles, and prouiſoes conteined in the ſame, more plainly is expreſſed. And foraſmuch as diuers and ſundrie perſons, haue heretofore of long time vſed and exerciſed, and at this preſent do vſe and exerciſe the feat and myſterie of clothmaking in the Counties of Somerſet, Wiltſhire, and Gloceſter, and haue to their great coſtes and charges, planted themſelues and their dwelling houſes diſperſedly thorow out the ſaid Counties, and neither in Cities, Boroughes, Townes corporate, or Market townes, as might and may ſerue moſt conueniently for the vſe and exerciſe of the ſaid feat and myſterie, as namely about the ryuers of Froomwater, Kingſwood water, the ryuers of Auen, Willibourne, and Saliſburie bournes, and Stroudwater, in the ſaid counties of Somerſet, Wiltſhire, and Gloceſter, and the branches of the ſame waters, and alſo for that the ſaid places and waters are verie good and apt for clothing, together with the great number of Fulling mills, and other workhouſes therunto adioyning, mainteined onely by the clothmaking in the villages and pariſhes thereabout: And foraſmuch alſo as a great multitude of poore people, as Weauers, Tuckers, Spinſters, and ſuch like, haue of long time heretofore, and at this preſent do inhabite and dwell neere vnto the ſaid places and waters, by meanes of the great clothmaking there, heretofore and now vſed, and haue been onely relieued and ſuſteined by the ſame, and alſo for that great inconuenience might inſue, within the ſaid counties of Somerſet, Wiltſhire, and Gloceſter, in remoouing and placing of ſuch a multitude, in, or within any citie, borough, towne corporate, or market towne, according to the meaning of this ſaid Act: Be it therefore enacted, that the ſaid branch and clauſe of the ſaid ſtatute, as touching onely the vſe or exerciſe of the feat or myſterie of making, weauing, or rowing of any woollen clothes, to the intent to put the ſame to ſale, but onely in a Market towne, citie, borough, or towne corporate, and all and euery the penalties and forfaitures, by reaſon of the ſaid branch onely, as againſt any ſuch perſons, as hath vſed, or hereafter ſhall vſe and exerciſe the ſaid feat and myſterie of making, weauing, or rowing of any wollen cloth within the ſaid counties of Somerſet, Wiltſhire, and Gloceſter, or any of them, ſhall be from henceforth repealed & made void: any thing conteined in the ſaid act, or in any other act heretofore made to the contrarie thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And further be it enacted by the aucthoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, now dwelling or abiding, or which hereafter ſhall dwell or abide within the ſaid counties of Somerſet, Wiltſhire, and Gloceſter, or any of them, ſhall from henceforth vſe or exerciſe the ſaid feat or myſterie of making, weauing, or rowing of any woollen cloth or clothes, out of any citie, borough, towne corporate, or market towne, except onely within ſuch houſes and places in the ſaid counties of Somerſet, Wiltſhire, and Gloceſter, or any of them, as ſuch woollen clothes haue been moſt commonly vſed to be made, wouen, or rowed, by the ſpace of tenne yeeres, next before the making of this act, vpon paine of forfaiture of euery ſuch cloth made, wouen, or rowed, contrarie to this preſent act, v. li. The one moitie of which forfaiture ſhall be to our Soueraigne Lady the Queenes Maieſtie, her heires and ſucceſſours, and the other moitie to him or them that will ſue for the ſame. 68 Whereas in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the fifth and ſixth yeeres
of the raigne of our late ſoueraign Lord king
Edw. the ſixt, one ſtatute was made, intituled,
An act for the true making of woollen cloth, whereby (amongſt other things) it was enacted, that all whites and reds which after the feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell then next comming, ſhould be made in the ſhires or coũties of Wiltſhire, Gloceſter & Somerſet, or any of them, or elſewhere of like making, and all other whites which ſhould be made in any other parts of this Realme of England, and not before in the ſame Statute remembred, ſhould conteine in length being thorow wet, betweene ſixe and eight & twentie yards, and ſhould bee ſeuen quarters of the yard in breadth within the liſtes at the leaſt, & liſted according to the auncient cuſtome, and being well ſcoured, thicked, milled and fully dryed, ſhould weigh euery piece lxiiii. pound being white, and lx.li. being coloured at the leaſt, as by the ſaid act among diuers clauſes, articles, and prouiſions conteined in the ſame, more plainly is expreſſed. And whereas alſo in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the fourth and fifth yeres of the reigns of our late ſoueraigne lord and lady K. Philip & Queene Mary, one other ſtatute was made, intituled, An Acte touching the making of woollen clothes, whereby alſo (among other things) it was ordeined, eſtabliſhed, enacted and prouided, that euery white cloth which ſhould be made in the counties of Wiltſhire, Gloceſter, and Somerſet, or any of them, or elſwhere, of like making, appointed by the ſaid acte made in the ſaid fifth and ſixth yeeres of king Edward the ſixt, to weigh lxiiii. poundes, ſhould weigh being well ſcoured, thicked, milled and fully dried, lxi.li. at the leaſt, with a prouiſion in the ſame laſt recyted act conteined, that no perſon or perſons ſhould incurre the danger, penalty or forfeiture limitted & appointed for any offence in ẏ ſaid former recited act, which was mitigated or otherwiſe appointed by the ſaid act made in the fourth and fifth yeeres of king Philip & Queen Mary, as by ẏ ſame act amongſt diuers clauſes, articles & prouiſoes therein conteined, more plainely is expreſſed: Sithence the making of which ſaid ſeuerall ſtatutes, though the makers of the ſaid clothes haue indeuoured thẽſelues according to their beſt ſkill and induſtrie to performe & fulfil the the ſayde recyted Statutes in euery of their clothes, as much as in them did lie, as touching the bredth of Clothes, and to that end and purpoſe haue allowed and doe allow ſo much yarne and ſtuffe to euery ſuch Cloth as might ſufficiently ſerue to make all the ſayde Clothes fall out in length and bredth, according to the ſayd former Statute made in the fifth and ſixth yeeres of King Edward the ſixt, and in weight according to the ſayde braunch of the ſayde Statute, made in the fourth and fifth yeeres of the reignes of the late king Philip and Queene Marie: Yet notwithſtanding many times by reaſon of the diuers natures in the woolles, and by great diuerſities in the ſpinning, carding and milling, many of the ſaide clothes made within the ſaid counties of Wiltſhire, Gloceſter and Somerſet and Oxon. and elſwhere of like making, doe not conteine full ſeuen quarters in bredth, according to ſayd Statute made in the fifth and ſixth yeeres of King Edward the ſixt, and doe not hold their full weight or more, according to the former Statute made in the time of the ſaid king Philip & Queene Mary, and no default touching the breadth can iuſtly bee imputed to the maker thereof, for that the ſame Clothmakers (as experience daily ſheweth) cannot obſerue the ſayd former Statutes in all the ſaide Clothes as touching the breadth, although they indeuoure themſelues neuer ſo much thereunto: which Clothes not conteining their full Aſſiſe in bredth as is aforeſayd, are many times taken and ſeiſed by the Searchers of London, when they come to their Market at Blackwelhall, to the great loſſe and damage of the ſaide Clothmakers, and to the great hinderance of Cloth making within the ſayde Counties: In conſideration whereof, albeit it is not heereby intended to repeale or make voyd the ſayde former recyted Eſtatutes, or either of them, otherwiſe then is heereafter expreſſed: Yet neuertheleſſe bee it enacted by the Queenes moſt excellent Maieſtie, with the aſſent of the Lordes Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons, &c. That no perſon or perſons ſhall bee heereafter charged for any ſuch default which hereafter ſhall be in any of the ſaide Clothes mentioned in this Acte for want of breadth of ſeuen quarters, ſo that the ſame Cloth doe conteine in bredth being thorowly wet, ſixe quarters & a half at the leaſt within the liſtes vnwrought and liſted, according to the aucient cuſtome: any thing in any of the ſayde former Statutes mentioned to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding: Prouided alwayes, and bee it enacted by the aucthoritie aforeſaide, that if any of the ſayd Clothes ſhall not conteine ſix quarters and a halfe at the leaſt within the liſtes, as aforeſayde, that then euery perſon offending in that behalfe, ſhall for euery ſuch Cloth be ſubiect to ſuch paines, penalties and forfeitures, as were by force of the former recyted Statute of the fift and ſixt yeeres of king Edward the ſixt, to haue bin forfeited for want of bredth of vii. quarters ẇin the liſtes.

And be it neuertheleſſe enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if any cloth to bee made within any of the ſaid counties or elſwhere of like making, called narrow liſted whites, being well ſcoured, thicked, milled and fully dried, ſhall conteine in weight any leſſe then lxi. pounds at the leaſt, or if any cloth to be made within any of the ſaid Counties or elſewhere of like making, called broad liſted whites, being wel ſcoured, thicked, milled and fully dryed, ſhal conteine in weight any leſſe then lxiii. pound at the leaſt, or if any of the ſaid clothes called narrow liſted or broad liſted whites, ſhall conteine in length any more then xxviii. yards at the moſt: that thē euery of yͤ ſaid clothiers therein offending, ſhall incurre double ſuch penalties & forfeitures for euery pound ſo wanting of the ſeuerall weights aboue limited, & for euery yard ſo exceeding in length, and not weighing after ſuch rate, as is before expreſſed, as by the ſaid ſtatute of the fourth and fifth yeeres of king Philip and Queene Mary is prouided and appointed: This acte to endure & continue for the ſpace of fiue yeres next after the ende of the Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, and from the end of the ſaid fiue yeres, vntil the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament then next enſuing. 69 Whereas in the Parliament vppon Prorogation holdē at Weſtminſter the xxiii. of January in the fifth yere of the reign of the late King of famous memory Edward the ſixth, one acte was made for true making of woollen clothes: by which act amongſt other things it was enacted, that from & after the feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangel next enſuing the making of the ſaid act, no perſon or perſons ſhould put any haire, flox or any yarne of lambes wooll into any cloth, kerſey, frize or cotton, made and ſold, or offered to bee ſold, as in the ſaid act is expreſſed, vpon paine to forfeit euery ſuch cloth, kerſey, frize and cotten, wherein any ſuch yarn, haire or flox ſhould be put, or the value of ſuch cloth, kerſey, frize or cotton, as by the ſaid acte it doth and may appeare. And whereas by an other act made in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the ſeuenth yeere of the reigne of the ſaid late king, intituled, An act for the making of plain white ſtraites, and pinned white ſtraites in Deuon and Cornewall, the ſayde former acte was altered, and libertie giuen to the makers of the ſaide clothes called plaine white ſtraites and pinned white ſtraites, to vſe in making of the ſaide clothes, flox, haire, or yarn made of lambes wooll, and by the ſaid ſtatute diuers rules and orders were appointed for making of the ſaid clothes called plain white ſtraites, and pinned white ſtraites, as by the ſayd ſtatute doth appeare: Now for that the orders and rules both by the ſayd ſtatute made in the ſayd fifth yeere, as alſo in the ſayd ſeuenth yeere of the ſaide late king Edward the ſixth, tend to the vtter vndoing and decay of great numbers and multitudes of people, which liue by the trade of clothing, and are not profitable any longer to bee kept in theſe countries and places, where the ſaide clothes called plaine white ſtraites and pinned white ſtraites are vſually made, the ſame clothes beeing but a baſe and courſe kinde of clothes, vſually made for the vſe of poore people beyond the Seas, and moſt commonly ſhipped into Britaine, and there vttered for a Marchandize to ſerue the vſe of the poore ſort there: And eſpecially for that ſithence the making of the ſaid ſtatutes, the yarne wherewith the ſaide clothes called plaine white ſtraites and pinned white ſtraites are vſually made to the great benefit of the poore people where the ſame are made, is growen ſmaller and finer, whereby many more poore people are ſet on worke with ſpinning of the ſame, then either at or before the making of any the ſaid ſeuerall Statutes they were, ſo that the weight, length and bredth cannot agree, as before it did in making of the ſaide clothes. Bee it therefore enacted, &c. that the branch made in the ſayde fifth yeere, which prohibiteth putting of haire, flox or yarne made of lambes wooll into any cloth or frize, hauing regard vnto the ſaide clothes called plaine white ſtraites and pinned white ſtraites, be vtterly repealed and made voyd. And that the ſaid ſtatute alſo made in the ſeuenth yeere of the reigne of the ſayde late King, and euery braunch, Article and clauſe therein, bee from hencefoorth vtterly repealed and voyd for euer: And that it bee further enacted, that from hencefoorth it ſhall bee lawfull to all and euery the Queenes Maieſties ſubiects inhabiting, or which heereafter ſhall inhabite within the ſayde Counties of Deuon and Cornewall, aſwell in Townes corporate, Market Townes or elſewhere, to weaue and make the ſayde Clothes called plain white ſtraites and pinned white ſtraits, and to vſe and occupy in the making of the ſayd Clothes called plaine white ſtraites, and pinned white Straites, Flox, haire and yarne made of lambes wooll, and to haue and keepe and vſe in his or their houſes three Loomes and not aboue for making of the clothes aforeſaide, aud to make
